PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-fifth Legislature

1911

CHAP. 166Chapter 166.

An Act to provide a close time on Wood Ducks, so-called.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Close time on wood ducks.

Section 1. It shall be unlawful to hunt, chase, catch, kill, destroy or have in possession at any time, whenever or however killed, any wood duck, so-called, for a period of four years from the time this act takes effect, under a penalty of not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars and costs for each wood duck unlawfully killed, caught, chased or had in possession, except that the provisions of this act shall not apply to the county of Oxford.

Inconsistent
acts repealed.

Section 2. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Approved March 30, 1911.

Chapter 167.

An Act additional to Chapter one hundred and forty-four of the Revised Statutes, in relation to commitments to the Insane Hospitals.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Commitment of women to insane hospitals regulated.

If a woman is committed to either of the insane hospitals under the provisions of chapter one hundred forty-four of the revised statutes the magistrate or magistrates committing her shall, unless she is to be accompanied by a father, husband, brother or son designate a woman to be an attendant or one of the attendants to accompany her thereto.

Approved March 30, 1911.

Chapter 168.

An Act relating to the Taxation of Steam Railroads.

Preamble.

Whereas, the tax assessed under this act must be assessed on or before the first day of April next and whereas in the opinion of the legislature this fact renders the immediate passage of this act necessary for the preservation of the peace, health and safety and constitutes an emergency within the meaning of the constitution, now therefore:
