Chapter 198.

An Act relating to the Compensation of Justices of the Supreme Judicial or Superior Court.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. Section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-two of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nine is hereby amended by adding thereto the following: 'Provided however that such justice shall within one year after attaining the age of seventy years and serving as such justice for at least ten consecutive years, cease to serve as such justice,' so that said section shall read as follows:

Section 1, chapter 132, public laws 1909, amended.

'Section 1. Any justice of the supreme judicial court or superior court who, having attained the age of seventy years and having served as such justice for at least ten consecutive years, resigns his said office or ceases to serve at the expiration of any term thereof, shall during the remainder of his life receive an amount equal to one-half of the salary which is by law payable to him at the time of such resignation or termination of service; to be paid by the state in the same manner as the salaries of justices of said court are paid. The provisions of this act shall apply to present and former justices of said courts. Provided, however, that such justice shall within one year after attaining the age of seventy years and serving as such justice for at least ten consecutive years cease to serve as such justice.'

Compensation of justices of S. J. and superior courts upon retirement.

—proviso.

Section 2. Any justice of the supreme judicial court or superior court who, having attained the age of seventy years and having served as such justice for at least ten consecutive years, continues to serve as such justice for more than one year, shall waive his right to the compensation hereinbefore mentioned and shall make no claim therefor at the close of his term of service as such justice, whether such term of service is ended by resignation or by expiration of the term for which he is appointed.

Waiver of right heretofore mentioned.

Section 3. This act shall take effect September first, nineteen hundred and eleven.

When this act shall take effect.

Approved March 31, 1911.
