Section 12. It shall be the duty of the city clerk to furnish upon application a reasonable number of forms of such statements of candidates and of individual certificates of petition for nomination. All certificates must be of a uniform size as determined by the city clerk and each must be a separate paper.

City clerk shall furnish forms.

Section 13. On the first day, not being Sunday or a legal holiday, following the expiration of the time for filing the above described statements and petitions, the city clerk shall cause to be published in one daily newspaper published in the city, if there be any, otherwise in the nearest daily newspaper published in Kennebec county, the names and residences of the candidates for nomination who have duly filed the above mentioned statements and petitions, and the offices and terms for which they are candidates for nomination, as they are to appear on the official ballots to be used at the preliminary election for nominations. The city clerk shall thereupon prepare the ballots to be used at such preliminary election for nominations and shall cause them to be printed, and the ballots so prepared shall be the official ballots and the only ballots used at such preliminary election for nominations. They shall be headed on the face of the ballot as follows:

City clerk shall publish list of candidates.

—shall prepare ballots.

Official Nominating Ballot.

and the names of no other candidates, except as otherwise provided in section twenty-four of this act, shall be printed therein. The names of candidates shall be printed in lists arranged in alphabetical order in a single column with the titles of the respective offices. Blank spaces shall be left at the end of each list of candidates for nomination for the different offices, equal to the number to be nominated therefor, in which the voter may insert the name of any person not printed on the ballot for whom he desires to vote for nomination to such office. There shall be printed on the said ballots the names of the several departments of which the officers to be nominated shall, if elected, be the heads immediately below the titles of the respective offices. There shall also be printed on the said ballots four lines forming a square of half an inch immediately to the left of the name of each candidate and of the spaces left for the insertion of additional names, to receive the cross of the voter. There shall also be printed on the said ballots the following directions to voters: "To vote for any person make a cross with a black lead pencil (x) in the square at the left of the name of the person you wish to vote for"; printed in bold faced type directly below the heading; the word "for" immediately before the title of each office for which there are candidates to be nominated; and the words "vote for one," "vote for two," as the conditions may require, on the same line with, and directly following each title.

Section 15. (1) No ballot used at any annual or special city election or at any preliminary election for nominations shall have printed thereon any party or political designation or mark, and there shall not be appended to the name of any candidate any such party or political designation or mark or anything showing how he was nominated or indicating his views or opinions, nor shall any mark, character or device whatsoever be printed on the said ballots, except as provided in sections thirteen and fourteen of this act.

(2) Ballots for all annual and special city elections shall be printed in exact conformity with the rules for printing of ballots for preliminary elections for nominations laid down in sections thirteen and fourteen of this act, with the exceptions that the words "nominating" and "preliminary" shall be omitted from the headings of face and back, and that the additions specified in sections twenty-four, twenty-five and twenty-six of this act shall be made when required.

Section 16. (1) The provisions of law in relation to nominations by caucus shall not be applicable to any municipal nomination or election.

CHAP. 72

(2) Before every preliminary election for nominations the city council shall cause to be made a registration of voters to vote at such preliminary election for nominations, and at the city election for which the said preliminary election for nominations is held. Such registration shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the state law governing registration and it shall include all those who, between the time when the registration books for such registration shall be closed and the date of the city election for which such preliminary election for nominations is held, will become eligible for registration.

—registration of voters.

Section 17. The election officers shall immediately, upon, the closing of the polls at preliminary elections for nominations, count the ballots and ascertain the number of votes cast in the voting places where they officiate, for each person for nomination to each office, and shall make return thereof to the city clerk forthwith upon blanks to be furnished as in city elections.

Counting of ballots at preliminary elections.

Section 18. On the first day, not being a legal holiday, following such preliminary election for nominations, the city clerk shall canvass the said returns so received from the election officers and shall forthwith determine the result of such canvass and publish the same in one daily newspaper published in the city, if there be any; otherwise in the nearest daily newspaper published in Kennebec county.

—return of ballots.

Canvass of returns to provide for.

—result of canvass to be published.

Section 19. The two persons receiving at a preliminary election for nominations the greatest number of votes for nomination to an office shall be the only candidates for that office whose names shall be printed on the official ballots to be used at the annual or special city election, for the making of nominations for which such preliminary election for nominations was held.

Not more than two candidates for the same office.

Section 20. On the tenth and two succeeding days, not being Sundays or legal holidays, preceding the day fixed for an annual or special city election the city clerk shall cause to be published in one daily newspaper published in the city, if there be any, otherwise in the nearest daily newspaper published in Kennebec county, a call for such election and shall append thereto the names and residences of the candidates nominated at the preliminary election for nominations held for such election and the offices and terms for which they are candidates, as they are to appear on the official ballots to be used at such election. He shall also, at the same time, cause the chief of police or a police officer to post a copy of said call for election and list of candidates, printed in like form, at all the polling places in the city, and make return of his doings.

Call for annual or special city election, how made.

CHAP. 72

Laws governing annual or
election.

Section 21. The person receiving the greatest number of votes for any office at an annual or special city election shall be elected to the said office and shall be so declared, but except as here provided and as otherwise provided in the act, the laws of the state governing annual city elections, special elections of city officers and special elections in cities shall, as far as they are applicable, govern such elections in the city of Gardiner.

Acting mayor,
how chosen.

Section 22. Upon the death, resignation or absence of the mayor, or upon his inability to perform the duties of his office, one of the two aldermen shall be chosen, by lot drawn by the city clerk in the presence of both aldermen, to perform them, and if he also be absent or unable from any cause to perform said duties, they shall be performed by the other alderman, until the mayor or alderman first chosen is able to attend to the said duties, or until the vacancy is filled as hereinafter provided. The person upon whom such duties devolve shall be called "acting mayor," and, except as otherwise provided in this act, shall possess the powers of mayor, but only in matters not admitting of delay.

Vacancies,
how filled.

Section 23. If there be a vacancy, by failure to elect or otherwise, in the city council, whether as to the mayor or one or more aldermen, the council shall, within seven days, by its remaining members appoint a special city election to fill the vacancy or vacancies for the unexpired term or terms respectively, except that if such vacancy or vacancies occur less than four months before the annual city election, the city council shall, by its remaining members, fill such vacancy or vacancies for the remainder of the said four months. A person elected to fill any such vacancy shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take oath before the judge of the municipal court of the city of Gardiner, or a justice of the peace faithfully to perform the same.

—oath to be taken.

Removal of
city council.

Section 24. Any member of the city council may be removed at any time by the voters qualified to vote at city elections by the following method of procedure: A petition signed by a number of such voters equal to at least twenty-five per cent of the aggregate number of votes cast for candidates for mayor or alderman at the last preceding annual city election at which a mayor or alderman was elected, but not less than two hundred and fifty such voters, and demanding an election of a successor of the person whom they seek to remove, shall be filed in the office of the city clerk. Such petition shall contain a general statement of the grounds on which the removal is sought. It need not be on one paper, but may consist of several distinct papers each containing such demand substantially upon the same grounds; and all papers containing such demand and statement, which in any one day shall be filed in the office of the city clerk, shall be deemed parts of the same petition. Each signer shall add to his signature his place of residence, giving the street and street number, if any. One signer of every such paper shall make oath upon his information and belief before a notary public or a justice of the peace that the statements therein made are true, and that each signature to such paper is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be.

—oath to be made by one petitioner.

Within ten days after the date of filing such petition the city clerk shall examine the petition to ascertain whether or not it is signed by the requisite number of qualified voters as above prescribed, and shall attach to the said petition his certificate showing the result of his examination, and shall publish his said certificate in the next following issue of one daily newspaper published in the city, if there be any, otherwise in the nearest daily newspaper published in Kennebec county. If from the city clerk's certificate so published the petition appears to be signed by an insufficient number of voters, it may be supplemented within ten days after the date of such certificate by other papers signed and sworn to as aforesaid, and all such other papers containing a like demand and statement, and signed and sworn to as aforesaid, which shall be filed in the office of the clerk within the said ten days, shall be deemed supplemental to the original petition.

—city clerk shall ascertain if petition is signed by requisite number of voters.

—shall publish his certificate.

—petition may be supplemented.

The city clerk shall, within ten days after such supplementation, make a like examination of the amended petition, and attach thereto a new certificate, and publish the same as aforesaid, and if it appears from such new certificate so published that the petition still lacks the requisite number of signatures, it shall be returned to the person or persons who filed it, without prejudice however to the filing of a new petition to the same effect.

—new certificate shall be made.

If a petition, as originally filed or as supplemented, shall be certified by the city clerk and published as sufficient, he shall present it to the city council without delay, and the city council shall grant the election demanded, and shall fix a date therefor which shall be not less than forty nor more than fifty days after the presentation of the petition by the city clerk to the city council. The city council shall make or cause to be made all arrangements for holding the election demanded, and it shall be called, held and conducted, returns thereof shall be made, and the results thereof shall be declared, in all respects as in the case of other city elections. The successor of any officer so removed shall hold the office during the unexpired term of his predecessor. Any person whose removal is thus sought may be a candidate at such election, and unless he request otherwise in writing, the city clerk shall place his name on the official ballot without nomination. The candidate receiving the greatest number of votes shall be declared elected. If some person other than the incumbent receive the greatest number of votes, the incumbent shall thereupon be adjudged to be removed from the office. In case a person, other than the incumbent, receiving the greatest number of votes shall fail to make oath before the city clerk or a justice of the peace, within thirty days after his election, faithfully to perform the duties of the office, the office shall be deemed vacant. If the incumbent receive the greatest number of votes, he shall continue in office until the end of the term he was serving at the time of such election, unless sooner removed by new and like proceedings. The name of no candidate other than that of the person whose removal is sought shall be printed on the official ballots to be used at such election, unless such candidate be nominated as hereinbefore provided at a preliminary election for nominations.

Section 25. If a petition, signed by a number of the voters of the said city qualified to vote at city elections equal to at least twenty-five per cent. of the aggregate number of votes cast for candidates for mayor or alderman at the last preceding annual city election at which a mayor or alderman was elected, but not less than two hundred and fifty such voters, and requesting the city council to pass an ordinance therein set forth or referred to, shall be filed in the office of the city clerk, the city council shall, provided that the said ordinance be one which the city council shall, after this act takes effect, have a legal right to pass, (a) pass the said ordinance without alteration, within twenty days after the city clerk has attached his certificate of sufficiency to such petition, or (b) forthwith, after the expiration of the twenty days aforesaid appoint a special election, unless an election is fixed for a date within ninety days after the city clerk has attached the aforesaid certificate of sufficiency, and at such special or regular election submit such ordinance without alteration to the voters of the city qualified as aforesaid.

If, however, a petition otherwise like the above described petition, but signed by a number of such qualified voters equal to at least ten per cent., but less than twenty-five per cent. of the aggregate number of votes cast as aforesaid for candidates for mayor or aldermen, and not less than one hundred such voters, shall be filed as aforesaid, the city council shall (c) pass the ordinance therein set forth or referred to, without alteration, within twenty days after the city clerk has attached the aforesaid certificate of sufficiency, or (d) shall submit the said ordinance to the city council, shall have the city clerk's certificate of sufficiency or insufficiency attached thereto, and may be supplemented in the same manner as petitions filed under section twenty-four.

Section 26. If during the fourteen days next following the day on which the monthly summary of proceedings is filed with the city clerk as provided in section thirty-five, a petition, signed by a number of the voters of the said city, qualified to vote at city elections, equal to at least twenty-five per cent. of the aggregate number of votes cast for candidates for mayor or aldermen at the last preceding annual city election at which a mayor or alderman was elected, but not less than two hundred and fifty such voters, and protesting against the passage of any ordinance, shall be filed in the office of the city clerk, such ordinance shall be suspended from going into operation, and it shall be the duty of the city council to reconsider the same, and if the said council do not so reconsider and rescind its vote, they shall submit it, as is provided in subdivision (b) of section twenty-five, to the qualified voters of the city, and the said ordinance shall not go into effect or become operative unless a majority of the voters qualified as aforesaid, voting on the ordinance submitted, shall vote in favor thereof. The votes upon such ordinance shall be taken by ballot in answer to the question: "Shall the ordinance (stating the nature of the same) take effect?" which shall be printed on the ballots after the list of candidates if there be any.

Suspension of any ordinance, to provide for.

—form of ballot.

Petitions under the provisions of the section may consist of one or more distinct papers. In each of such papers the ordinance, the passage of which is protested, shall be set forth or referred to, and all such papers filed in any one day in the office of the city clerk shall be considered parts of the same petition. Such petitions shall be signed, sworn to as to signatures, examined, re-examined, presented to the city council, shall have the city clerk's certificate of sufficiency or insufficiency attached thereto, and may be supplemented in the same manner as petitions filed under section twenty-four.

—petitions, of what they shall consist.

—shall be sworn to.

Section 27. The city of Gardiner shall be governed by a city council, consisting of the mayor and two aldermen chosen as provided in this act, each of whom shall have the right to vote on all questions coming before the council. Two members of the council shall constitute a quorum, and the affirmative vote of two members shall be necessary to adopt any motion, cil, when to be held.

Officers to be elected by

resolution or ordinance, or pass any measure. Upon every vote the yeas and nays shall be called and recorded, and every motion, resolution or ordinance shall be reduced to writing and read before the vote is taken thereon. The city clerk shall be the clerk of the council, and shall keep a journal of its proceedings which shall be a public record. The mayor or acting mayor shall preside at all meetings of the council, and shall have the right to vote on all questions coming before it; he shall have no power to veto any measure, but every resolution or ordinance passed by the council shall be signed by him, and must be attested by the city clerk, and be recorded, before it shall take effect.

Section 28. The city council shall have and possess and its members shall severally exercise all executive, legislative and judicial powers and duties, and be subject to any and all liabilities now had, possessed and exercised by or imposed upon the mayor, aldermen, common council, assessors, overseers of the poor and street commissioner, as had, possessed and exercised by them, acting severally or collectively in councils, boards, commissions or committees, except as the same may be inconsistent with any of the provisions of this act.

The mayor and the two aldermen shall be and are hereby constituted assessors and overseers of the poor, and as such shall be subject to all the provisions of state law governing such assessors and overseers and shall perform all the duties required by such law of the said officers.

The mayor shall be first assessor and the alderman of public safety and charities shall be chairman of the board of overseers of the poor.

Section 29. All present existing offices, councils, boards, commissions and committees which are inconsistent with the provisions of this act shall be abolished, and the tenure of office of office-holders whose offices are so inconsistent, shall terminate, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the first Monday in January of the year next following the acceptance of this act.

Section 30. The city council elected as provided in this act shall meet at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the first Monday in January of each year, beginning with the year next following the acceptance of this act, and those of them whose terms of office then begin shall severally take oath before the judge of the municipal court of the city of Gardiner, or a justice of the peace, to perform faithfully the duties of their respective offices.

Section 31. The city council shall, at the said first meeting and at every annual meeting thereafter, elect by majority vote the following officers: a city clerk, a treasurer, an auditor, a purchasing agent, a collector of taxes, a superintendent of streets and highways, a chief of police and chief of fire department, a city solicitor, a city physician, a civil engineer, one member of the school committee to serve for three years, and one trustee of the Gardiner Water District to serve for three years, and such other officers as may be necessary or are required by law. At the said first meeting the city council shall also elect, by majority vote, three directors of the public library to serve for three, two and one years, respectively, and annually thereafter shall so elect one director of the public library to serve for three years. Such other officers and assistants as shall be provided for by ordinance, or may be necessary to the proper and efficient conduct of the affairs of the city, or are required by statute, shall be appointed by the heads of the several departments subject to approval by the city council.

Any person elected or appointed to any office by the city council may at any time be removed from such office by vote of a majority of the said council.

Vacancies in any of the offices mentioned in this section, from whatever cause they may arise, may be filled in the manner provided for the original election or appointment, and if filled by election of the city council such election may be made at a regular or at a special meeting thereof.

—vacancies caused by removal, how filled.

Section 32. The mayor shall have general oversight of all departments of the city government and report to the city council for its action all matters requiring attention in either. All notes or bonds which the city is authorized to issue shall be signed by the city treasurer and countersigned by the mayor and one alderman. All contracts and instruments other than notes and bonds, requiring the assent of the city shall be signed by the alderman who is the head of the department concerned and countersigned by the mayor, except that when such contracts or instruments concern the department of accounts and finances they shall be signed by the mayor and countersigned by one alderman.

Mayor shall report to city council.

—notes and bonds by whom to be signed.

Section 33. After the first meeting, or the annual meeting, of the city council above provided for, regular meetings of the city council shall be held at least once each week of every year. The city council shall provide by ordinance for the time of holding regular meetings, and special meetings may be called from time to time by the mayor or the two aldermen.

Regular meeting of city council, when held.

Section 34. No order, resolution or vote appropriating money in excess of three hundred dollars, or making, or authorizing the making of any contract involving a liability on —giving rights, franchises, etc., to be proposed in writing.

the part of the city in excess of three hundred dollars, nor any order, resolution or vote ordering any street improvement or sewer, or granting any franchise, or giving any right to occupy or use the streets, highways, bridges or public places in the city for any purpose for which municipal consent may be necessary, shall be passed by the city council unless it be proposed in writing and remain on file in the office of the city clerk and be published by him twice in one daily newspaper of the city, if there be any, and in the nearest daily newspaper published in Kennebec county, at least one week before its final passage, except an order, resolution or vote for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, which contains a statement of its urgency.

—orders and resolutions to be published.

Such orders, resolutions or votes as are required to be published under the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of section twenty-six limiting the passage of ordinances, save only that petitions in protest must be filed within the fourteen days next following the final passage of any such order, resolution or vote as hereinbefore provided.

—exceptions.

City council shall print monthly, statement of receipts and expenditures.

Section 35. The city council shall each month print in pamphlet form an itemized statement of all receipts and expenditures of the city and a summary of its proceedings during the preceding month, shall file a copy thereof in the office of the city clerk, who shall note thereon the date of such filing, and shall furnish copies thereof to the public library, to the newspapers published in the city, if there be any, and to the nearest daily newspaper published in Kennebec county, and to persons who shall apply therefor at the office of the city clerk. At the end of the municipal year it shall cause a full and complete examination of all books and accounts of the city to be made by a certified public accountant, and shall publish the result of such examination in the manner above provided for the publication of statements of monthly receipts and expenditures.

—shall furnish copies of such statement.

Salary of mayor.

Section 36. The salary of the mayor shall be twelve hundred dollars per annum and the salary of each alderman shall be one thousand dollars per annum. The salaries shall not be changed except upon petition and procedure as provided in section twenty-five for the introduction and passage of ordinances, by vote of the qualified voters of the city, at an annual city election. The city council shall fix the salaries of all subordinate officers.

Members of city council shall hold no other salaried office to be paid by the city.

Section 37. No member of the city council shall during the term for which he was chosen be eligible, either by appointment or by election of the city council, to any other office the salary of which is payable by the city, nor shall, during such term, hold any such other office.

Neither the purchasing agent nor any member of the city council shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract or job for work or materials, or the profits thereof, to be furnished or performed for the city.

City council nor purchasing agent shall have any interest in contracts, etc.

Section 38. The city council may make rules for the conduct of its business. The mayor may be a member of any of its committees.

City council may make rules for conduct of its business.

Section 39. The duties of the superintending school committee, as prescribed by the laws of the State, except as herein otherwise provided, shall be performed by a school committee of three members, which shall also and in like manner have charge of the high school.

Superintending school committee.

The purchase of any site for a school building, the purchase of any building for school purposes, the plans for any alteration of any school building, the plans for any new school building, and the execution of any such plans for the alteration of old buildings or the building of new ones, subject to the provisions of chapter eighty-eight of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nine, shall be determined, made, adopted and carried out by, and under the supervision of, the school committee acting jointly with the members of the city council.

—purchases, buildings, etc., for school purposes, by whom to be made.

The mayor, by the purchasing agent, shall purchase all books, stationery, school apparatus and schoolroom supplies required by the school committee or the superintendent of schools acting for them, but all ordinary repairs of school buildings and supplies, of furniture for such buildings shall be made and purchased by the city council on recommendation by the school committee or the superintendent of schools acting for them.

The members of the superintending school committee whose term of office have not expired when the first election by the city council is held under this act, shall serve out their unexpired term as members of the school committee aforesaid.

—tenure of present school committee.

Section 40. Before the first day of April in the year next following the acceptance of this act, the city council, with the advice and assistance of the civil engineer, shall divide the city into not less than seven nor more than ten voting precincts. The division shall not be made with any reference to the old ward lines or regard for the number of voters living in each precinct, but shall be made solely to serve the convenience of voters in voting at municipal, county, state and national elections. The city council shall specify, appoint or provide a polling place for each of the aforesaid voting precincts, and furnish each such polling place with such furniture and appurtenances as are required by the laws of the state for polling places. The voting precincts and polling places provided as aforesaid shall serve all the purposes of wards and ward rooms under the state laws governing elections, and all reference to wards, ward rooms and polling places in such state laws shall apply to the voting precincts and polling places aforesaid.

Voting precincts to establish.

—city council shall prescribe polling places.

CHAP. 72

—list of polling places to be published.

The city council shall cause the division so made, and the polling places so provided, to be published at least twice in one daily newspaper published in the city, if there be any, otherwise in the nearest daily newspaper published in Kennebec county, on the completion of such division, and shall cause the said lists to be posted at the several polling places. The names of qualified voters, as published and posted, shall be grouped severally under the names of the streets, roads, avenues or lanes on which the said voters live, and arranged alphabetically in each group.

—division of voting precincts may be revised.

After three years from the first division into voting precincts as above provided, and at the end of any three year period thereafter, the city council may revise the aforesaid division, changing the lines of the several voting precincts or providing more such precincts, up to the number of ten, if the convenience of the voters should warrant such change, but in no case making the number of such precincts less than seven.

Repeal of specified acts shall not affect any act done, accruing, or any suit, etc.

Section 41. The repeal of the acts specified in section two of this act shall not affect any act done, or any act accruing or accrued or established, or any suit or proceeding had or begun in any civil case before the time when such repeal takes effect, nor shall it affect any offences committed or penalty or forfeiture incurred under the provisions of the acts or parts of acts hereby repealed. All persons who at this time said repeal takes effect shall hold any office under the said acts shall continue to hold them according to the tenure thereof, except as otherwise provided herein; moreover all by-laws and ordinances of the city of Gardiner that are in force at the time when the said repeal takes effect, and not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall continue in force until they are repealed or amended according to the provisions herein made for repealing or amending by-laws and ordinances, and all officers elected under such by-laws and ordinances shall continue in office according to the tenure thereof, except as is otherwise provided herein.

—present by-laws and ordinances to continue until repealed.

Petitions for special elections.

Section 42. Petitions addressed to the board of aldermen and signed by qualified voters of the city, requesting that a special election be held at which this act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the said city, may be filed in the office of the city clerk at any time on or before the second Tuesday of August in the year nineteen hundred and eleven. Each signer of any such petition shall add to his signature the name of the street on which he lives at the time of signing, and the street number of his house if there be any. Such petition need not be sworn to. Within the seven days next after the said second Tuesday of August, the city clerk shall examine the petitions so filed and ascertain the aggregate number of qualified voters of the city who have signed them, and he shall forthwith present the petition to the board of aldermen with his certificate setting forth the aggregate number of qualified voters of the city who have so signed. If it shall appear from the said certificate that such aggregate number is at least one hundred and fifty, the board of aldermen shall forthwith call a special election to be held on the second Tuesday of September in the year nineteen hundred and eleven, at which special election this act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the city.

—when to be filed.

—duty of city clerk.

—date when special election shall be held.

This act shall take effect, as hereinafter provided, upon its acceptance by a majority of the voters voting thereon at the said special election, or at either of the special elections hereinafter provided for. The vote shall be taken by ballot in answer to the question: "Shall an act passed by the legislature in the year nineteen hundred and eleven entitled 'An Act to provide a charter for the city of Gardiner' be accepted?" which shall be printed on the official ballot.

—when this act shall take effect.

—form of ballot.

If, however, the said act be not so accepted at the aforesaid special election, it may be again submitted in the manner above prescribed, if a petition made and signed as aforesaid requesting such resubmission be filed in the office of the city clerk at any time on or before the second Tuesday of August in the year nineteen hundred and twelve and be found to be sufficiently signed as above provided, at a special election to be called for the second Monday of September in the year nineteen hundred and twelve and held on that day.

—resubmission of this act, how effected.

If on such resubmission the said act should not be so accepted it may be resubmitted a second time, upon petition as above required, signed as hereinbefore prescribed and filed as aforesaid at any time on or before the second Tuesday of August in the year nineteen hundred and thirteen, at a special election to be called as aforesaid for the second Tuesday of September in the year nineteen hundred and thirteen and held on that day.

Except in so far as they may be inconsistent with this section of this act, all general laws governing and applicable to a special election of a city officer shall govern and apply to the special elections at which this act shall be submitted or resubmitted as aforesaid.

CHAP. 73

—when this act shall take effect.

If this act shall be so accepted, it shall take effect on its acceptance for the annual city election to be held on the Tuesday next following the last Monday in November in the year of its acceptance, for the preliminary election for nominations to be held, under the provisions of this act, on the second Tuesday preceding the aforesaid annual city election for the statements of candidates (and petitions accompanying statements of candidates) to be filed by persons whose names are to be printed on the official ballots to be used at such preliminary election for nominations, and for all things which appertain and relate to said annual city election, preliminary election for nominations and statements of candidates and petitions. For all other purposes it shall take effect at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the first Monday of January of the year next following the year of its acceptance.

When submission of this act shall take effect.

Section 43. So much of this act as authorizes the submission of the question of its acceptance to the qualified voters of the said city shall take effect upon its approval by the governor, subject to the provisions of amendment ten of the state constitution.

Approved March 9, 1911.
