CHAP. 132

—liable for damages.
—damages, how ascertained, if parties fall to agree.

the small stream connecting Boyden's lake with Pennamaquam lake, a good and sufficient dam to retain the water in Boyden's lake, and shall be liable for all damages caused by the taking of land therefor. Said damages, if not agreed upon, to be ascertained in the manner and under the same conditions, restrictions and limitations as are prescribed by law in the case of damages by the laying out of railroads. Until said dam shall be constructed as aforesaid, nothing in this section shall render the Pennamaquam Power Company liable to the Eastport Water Company by reason of the provisions of this section.

Approved March 16, 1911.

Chapter 132.

An Act granting certain powers to the Eastport Water Company.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Company authorized to erect and maintain dam.

Section 1. The Eastport Water Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the state of Maine and having its principal office at Eastport in the county of Washington and state of Maine, for the purpose of conserving and insuring at all times a more perfect and sufficient supply of pure water for the city of Eastport to be used for domestic, fire, mechanical and municipal purposes, is hereby authorized and empowered to erect and maintain a dam at or near the Boyden lake end of the small stream connecting Boyden lake with Pennamaquam lake and a dam at the outlet of Boyden lake; and further is authorized to raise its dams already constructed and maintained on Little river in the town of Perry.
