OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-fifth
Legislature

1911

Chapter 183.CHAP. 183

An Act to render valid the doings of the Little Madawaska Improvement Co.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

The incorporation of Little Madawaska Improvement Co., a corporation organized under the provisions of chapter one hundred sixty-nine private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seven, is hereby made and declared to be valid and all the acts and doings of said Little Madawaska Improvement Company as a corporation are hereby legalized and made valid.

Incorporation, and acts and doings made valid.

Approved March 22, 1911.

Chapter 184.

An Act to ratify the organization, acts and doings and extend the powers of the Georges River Land Company.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. The organization of the Georges River Land Company, a corporation created by chapter two hundred and twenty-three of the private and special laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, duly existing under the laws of the state of Maine, is hereby ratified, confirmed and declared to be legal and valid, and the surviving members and officers have authority to hold a meeting on call of the president giving seven days' notice, and then elect new officers, and amend or make new by-laws; and the clerk elected at such meeting shall have authority to complete the records of the deceased clerk.

Organization and acts and doing of Georges River Land Company made valid.

Section 2. Section three of said act is hereby amended by striking out the words "or for those desiring to use the same" after the word "property" in the twenty-fifth line. The rights, powers and authority of the said corporation as granted in said chapter two hundred and twenty-three of private and special laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one as amended, are hereby extended and granted to the new officers and members and their associates and successors; and said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds secured by its property.

Section 3, chapter 223, special laws, 1891, amended.

—rights and powers extended.

—may issue bonds.

Approved March 22, 1911.
