OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-fifth Legislature

1911

CHAP. 185

Chapter 185.

An Act to amend the charter of the Livermore Falls Sewer District, for the better Collection of Taxes.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 11,
chapter 289,
special laws, 1907, amended.

Section eleven of chapter two hundred eighty-nine of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seven is hereby amended by inserting in the sixth line, of said section, after the word "collected," the words, 'the valuation of said property, within the district, may be assessed by the trustees, or taken from the assessor's book within the district of the town of East Livermore, for the year said property is to be assessed. The trustee's may appoint a collector for the collection of all taxes assessed on the property within said district, and the collector may bring suit, in the name of the inhabitants of said district on any unpaid taxes within ten days, after notice is given to the property holder of the amount of said tax.

The assessment of a tax on any property within the district, will create a lien on said property for one year from assessment, and said property may be advertised and sold for the payment of said taxes', so that said section when amended, shall read as follows:

Deficit may be raised by taxation.

—taxes, how assessed and collected.

'Section II. At any time should the income of said district be insufficient to meet all the obligations set forth in section ten of this act, the whole or any part of this deficit may be raised by taxation; which tax shall be assessed and collected, on the property within the district, in the same manner as municipal taxes are assessed and collected, the valuation of said property within the district, may be assessed by the trustees, or taken from the assessors books, within the district, of the town of East Livermore, for the year said property is to be assessed.

—trustees
may appoint collector of taxes.

The trustee's may appoint a collector for the collection of all taxes assessed on the property, within said district, and the collector may bring suit, in the name of the inhabitants of said district, on any unpaid taxes within ten days after notice is given to the property holder, for the amount of taxes due. The assessment of a tax on any property within the district, will create a lien on said property for one year from assessment, and said property may be advertised and sold for the payment of said taxes.'

—lien on property for taxes assessed.

Approved March 22, 1911.
