CHAP. 195

—payable in one sum or in annual installments.

—failure to pay any installment.

—any person not an abuttor may make application to connect with public sewer.

cers be assessed and determined in one sum against each applicant or person or corporation liable to pay the same, and be made payable in one sum or made payable in annual installments extending over a term of years not exceeding ten years from the date of said assessment or said determination. A failure to pay when due any one of the instalments of said assessment or determination shall render the person or corporation liable to pay as aforesaid, and the property on which the lien therefor exists subject to all the provisions of said chapter twenty-one as to the enforcement of payment and lien. Any person other than an abuttor who wishes to enter and connect his private drain or sewer with a public drain or sewer who makes written application therefor to the municipal officers, may so enter and connect by paying the town treasurer such a sum as the municipal officers shall deem expedient and reasonable, and such applicant shall receive a written permit signed by at least a majority of the municipal officers, stating the amount to be paid, the right so to enter, the place and manner of such entry and connection. Said applicant shall at all times maintain said private sewer or drain to its connection with said public sewer or drain without expense, loss or damage to said town of York.'

Approved March 25, 1911.
