OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-fifth Legislature

1911

CHAP. 293

It shall be unlawful to have in possession any kind of fish taken in violation of any provision of this section.

Penalty.

Section 2. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to the same penalty as is provided in the general law of the state for the illegal fishing for, or taking, catching or killing of trout or land-locked salmon.

Court jurisdiction.

Section 3. In all prosecutions arising under this act, municipal and police courts and trial justices within their respective counties shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme judicial and superior courts, and all fines, forfeitures and penalties recovered by any person for any violation of this act shall be paid forthwith by the person receiving the same to the state treasurer.

Inconsistent
acts repealed.

Section 4. All acts or parts of acts, whether public or private and special, inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed.

Approved March 31, 1911.

Chapter 293.

An Act relating to the assessment of the County Taxes in the several counties for the year nineteen hundred and eleven.

Preamble.

Whereas the assessment of the county taxes for defraying the expenses of government of the several counties is immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; and

Whereas by revised statutes, chapter nine, section seventy-one, said county taxes are required to be apportioned by the county commissioners in March; and

Whereas the resolve granting the county taxes was not passed in season to leave sufficient time in the month of March for making the apportionment by the county commissioners as provided by law; in the opinion of this legislature the facts above recited constitute an emergency rendering it immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety that an act should be passed extending the time for such apportionment; therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

County taxes
may be apportioned in March or April.

Section 1. County taxes of the several counties for the year nineteen hundred and eleven may be apportioned either during the months of March or April of said year upon the last state valuation.

When this act shall take effect.

Section 2. In view of the emergency expressed in the preamble of this act, this act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 31, 1911.
