Chapter 35.

Resolves providing for an amendment to the Constitution by abrogating and annulling the twenty-sixth amendment adopted on the eighth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, relating to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

Resolved, two-thirds of both houses of the legislature concurring, that the following amendment to the constitution of the state be proposed, viz:

Constitutional amendment, resolves providing for.

The twenty-sixth amendment to the constitution adopted on the eighth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, relating to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors is hereby abrogated and annulled.

Resolved, that the aldermen of cities, selectmen of towns, and assessors of plantations, are hereby empowered and directed to notify the inhabitants of their respective cities, towns and plantations, to meet in the manner prescribed by law for calling and holding biennial meetings of said inhabitants for the election of senators and representatives, on the second Monday in September following the passage of said resolve, to give in their votes on the question whether the amendment of the constitution proposed by the foregoing resolve shall be made; and the question proposed in the resolve shall be:

Notice of meetings.

Shall the constitution be amended so as to abrogate and annul the twenty-sixth amendment adopted on the eighth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, relating to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors?

Form of question to be submitted.

And the inhabitants of said cities, towns and plantations shall vote by ballot on said question, those in favor of said amendment expressing it by the word "yes" upon their ballots, and those opposed to said amendment expressing it by the word "no" upon their ballots, and the ballots shall be received, sorted, counted and declared in open ward, town and plantation meet-
