Chapter 99.

Resolve providing for an appropriation for the protection of trees and shrubs from the introduction and ravages of dangerous insects and diseases.

Resolved, whereas, the gypsy moths have been declared by law to be public nuisances and their oppression and the prevention of their introduction into this state, and the protection of trees and shrubs from the introduction and ravages of dangerous insects and diseases, require constant work now being carried on under the direction of the commissioner of agriculture, and the interruption of said work until ninety days after the recess of this legislature would be harmful to the public health, and

Whereas, by reason of the foregoing facts this measure is immediately necessary for the preservation of the public health, and an emergency as contemplated by the constitution exists, now, therefore

Resolved, that for the purpose of carrying into effect all provisions of the law now in force, or as the same may be amended and added to, relative to the protection of trees and shrubs from the introduction and ravages of dangerous insects and diseases, there is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the treasury the sum of twenty thousand dollars for the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

This resolve, two-thirds of all the members elected to each house having so directed, shall take effect when approved by the Governor.

Approved March 25, 1911.
