brought for the purposes aforesaid. No costs shall be awarded against either party in any such proceedings. But if it satisfactorily appears to the court on hearing that the party bringing the bill has conveyed or transferred any of her or of his property, real or personal, to the other party to the bill for the purpose of cheating, defrauding, hindering or delaying her or his creditors, the bill shall be dismissed. An appeal from any final decree may be taken as in other equity causes. There shall be no survival of the right to institute proceedings under this act, and if a wife or husband dies after the commencement of proceedings under this act and before the final determination and disposition of the same, such proceedings shall abate.

Chapter 49.

An Act to Amend Section Twenty-eight of Chapter Sixty-five of the Revised Statutes, Relating to Appeals from Orders, Sentences, Decrees or Denials of Judges of Probate.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section twenty-eight of chapter sixty-five of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by inserting, after the word "administrator" in the fifth line, the words, 'and from any order or decree requiring any administrator, executor, guardian or trustee to give an additional or new official bond,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Section 28
of chapter
65, R. S., amended.

'Section 28. The supreme judicial court is the supreme court of probate, and has appellate jurisdiction in all matters determinable by the several judges of probate; and any person aggrieved by any order, sentence, decree, or denial of such judges, except the appointment of a special administrator, and from any order or decree requiring any administrator, executor, guardian or trustee to give an additional or new official bond, may appeal therefrom to the supreme court to be held within the county, if he claims his appeal within twenty days from the date of the proceeding appealed from; or if, at that time, he was beyond sea, or out of the United States, and had no sufficient attorney within the state, within twenty days after his return, or the appointment of such attorney.'
