PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-Sixth
Legislature

1913

CHAP. 74

If no bids are received treasurer shall bid in stock.

—proviso.

Treasurer's certificate passes the title.

If no bids are received at said sale for said stock, the treasurer of the corporation shall bid in said stock in behalf of the corporation, the same to be again sold by the corporation as the directors may vote. Provided, however, that no rights of creditors of the corporation shall be thereby affected and such stock so long as held by the corporation shall have no voting power.

The treasurer's certificate of the sale of such shares, recorded as other transfers, passes the title to the purchaser.'

Approved March 18, 1913.

Chapter 74.

An Act to Amend Section Eight of Chapter One Hundred and Ninety-five of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred Eleven Relating to the Disposition of Cattle Re-acting to the Tuberculin Test.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

Section 8 of chapter 195, P. L. of 1911, amended.

Section eight of chapter one hundred ninety-five of the public laws of nineteen hundred eleven is hereby amended by adding thereto the following paragraph :

'Cattle re-acting to the tuberculin test may be sent to establishments maintaining a United States Government meat inspection service, and be killed under federal government inspection, and be disposed of according to the requirements of the Government Meat Inspection Act,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows :

Conditions under which owner of condemned cattle may receive fair compensation for same.

'Section 8. When cattle shipped from Maine to the quarantine station at Brighton, Massachusetts, are subjected to the tuberculin test, and respond to such test, and the inspector for the Cattle Bureau of Massachusetts shall find upon post-mortem examination that such cattle were diseased from tuberculosis, and will so state in writing within twenty days from shipment from the state, to the live stock sanitary commissioner, and shall also give in writing, a description of such animal, the name of the owner, the shipper, the date and name of place from which same was shipped, the name of the party of whom it was bought and the fair cash value of such animal at time condemned, and shall also comply with any other rule or regulation that the live stock sanitary commissioner may require, the owner shall be entitled to receive a fair market value, not to exceed fifty dollars for grade and one hundred dollars for thoroughbred cattle, with a pedigree recorded or recordable ; but in no case shall he be paid for any animal condemned under the provisions of this section, until he has filed with the live stock sanitary commissioner a claim, stating the name of the owner, the shipper, his post-office address, place and date of shipment, price paid for such animal, name of the person from whom said animal was purchased and such other information as the live stock sanitary commissioner may require; such claim shall be accompanied on every instance with a 'sale ticket' for such part of the animal as may have been sold, and the amount for such sale shall be deducted from the appraised value due the owner of the condemned animal.' 'Cattle re-acting to the tuberculin test may be sent to establishments maintaining a United States government meat inspection service, and be killed under federal government inspection, and be disposed of according to the requirements of the Government Meat Inspection Act.'
