OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-Sixth
Legislature

1913

CHAP. 134

Chapter 134.

An Act to Prevent the Use of the Name of the State by Private or Semi-public Corporations or Associations.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Charitable institutions shall not use name of the state in title.

Section 1. No charitable institution or association of a private or of a semi-public nature, incorporated by special act of the legislature or in conformity with section one of chapter fifty-seven of the revised statutes, formed or incorporated after this act becomes effective, shall use the name of the state in its title.

Penalty for violation of this act.

Section 2. Any institution or association that violates the provisions of this act shall, upon notice and complaint by any person to the governor and council, and after hearing had by that body, be held to have forfeited the right to any appropriation from the state.

Approved March 31, 1913.

Chapter 135.

An Act Relating to Inter-insurers and Authorizing the Business Transacted Thereby.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Making contracts of indemnity between individuals not insurance.

Section 1. The making of contracts between individuals, firms or corporations, providing indemnity among each other from casualty or other contingencies or from loss or damage to their own property, shall not constitute the business of insurance and shall not be subject to the laws of this state relating to insurance, except as herein provided, but where such contracts are exchanged through an attorney, agent or other representative acting for such individuals, firms or corporations, the said attorney, agent or other representative shall file with the insurance commissioner of this state a declaration in writing, verified by the oath of such attorney, agent or other representative, setting forth:

—attorneys, or agents shall make oath to and file a declaration.

—name of attorney.

(a) The name of the attorney, agent or other representative through whom such contracts are exchanged.

—copy of form of policy.

(b) A copy of the form of policy, contract or agreement under which such insurance is to be exchanged.

—copy of form of power of attorney.

(c) A copy of the form of power of attorney or other authority of such attorney, agent or other representative under which such contracts are to be exchanged.

—location of office.

(d) The location of the office or offices from which such contracts or agreements are to be issued.
