CHAP. 143

Approved March 31, 1913.

Chapter 143.

An Act to Amend Section Three of Chapter Two Hundred Twenty-nine of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred Nine, Relating to the State Board of Arbitration and Conciliation.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section three of chapter two hundred twenty-nine of the public laws of nineteen hundred nine, is hereby amended by striking out in the second line the word "three," and inserting in place thereof the word 'five,' and by striking out in the tenth line the words "annual report of the bureau of industrial and labor statistics," and inserting in place thereof the words 'biennial report of the department of labor and industry,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Section 3 of chap. 229 of P. L. of 1909, amended.

'Section 3. The members of the board shall receive a compensation of five dollars per diem for the time actually employed and shall receive traveling and all other necessary expenses. Each member before entering upon the performance of his duties shall be sworn to the faithful performance thereof. The board shall from time to time make such rules of procedure as it deems necessary and shall annually, on or before the first day of December, make a report to the governor and council, which shall be incorporated in and printed with the biennial report of the department of labor and industry. The board shall hold a meeting on the third Wednesday of September in each year and shall organize by choosing a chairman and secretary, both of whom shall be members of the board: Provided, the first meeting shall be held as soon as convenient after all the members have been appointed.'
