Chapter 169.

An Act to Amend Section One of Chapter Ninety-three of the Revised Statutes, as Amended, Relating to Mortgages of Personal Property.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1 of chapter 93, R. S., as amended by chapter 86 of P. L. of 1911, further amended.

Mortgages of personal property, when valid between the parties.

—where mortgage shall be recorded.

Section one of chapter ninety-three of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter eighty-six of the public laws of nineteen hundred eleven, is hereby further amended so that said section when amended shall read as follows:

‘Section 1. No mortgage of personal property is valid against any other person than the parties thereto, unless possession of such property is delivered to, and retained by the mortgagee, or the mortgage is recorded in the office of the clerk of the city, town or plantation organized for any purpose, in which the mortgagor resides, when the mortgage is given. When any of the mortgagors reside without the state, or in an unorganized place in the state, the mortgage shall be recorded in the registry of deeds in the county where the mortgagee resides, when the mortgage is given. A mortgage made by a corporation, shall be recorded in the city, town or plantation where it has its established place of business, and if said corporation has no established place of business in the state, or said place of business is in an unorganized place in the state, then in the registry of deeds in the county where the mortgagee resides when the mortgage is made.’

Approved April 2, 1913.
