PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-Sixth
Legislature

1913

CHAP. 192

—in case of fatal accidents county attorney shall have notice.

—board shall make report.

—costs, how paid.

deem the public interests require it, cause an investigation to be made forthwith by the board, which investigation shall be held in the locality of the accident, unless, for reasons touching the convenience of all concerned, the commissioners shall order it to be commenced at some other place; but in either case, the investigation may be adjourned to some other suitable and convenient place. The board or the chairman thereof, shall seasonably notify the officers of the company, and also, if the accident shall have resulted fatally to one or more persons, the county attorney of the county where the accident occurred, of the time and place of the investigation. The board shall have power to issue subpoenas for witnesses, and the testimony of each witness shall be taken before a sworn stenographer. Immediately after the investigation the board shall make a special report, stating what it finds to be the cause of the accident, transmit copies thereof to such county attorney, and the railroad corporation concerned, and publish the same in its annual report. The taxable cost of the investigation shall be made up and certified to the governor and council by the board, and the same shall be paid by the state. Witnesses in all such cases shall be allowed the same fees as in the supreme judicial court.

Approved April 9, 1913.
