PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-Sixth
Legislature

1913

CHAP. 197 port of the secretary showing the actual condition of the various institutions under its supervision, with such suggestions and recommendations as it may deem necessary and advisable.

Members of board or its secretary shall not be interested in any contracts, etc. Section 10. No member of said board or its secretary or any agent thereof shall be directly or indirectly interested in any contract for the purchase of land or for building, altering or repairing any institution or building which by this act they are authorized to visit and inspect or for furnishing materials or supplies for the same, nor shall any officers of such institution be eligible to appointment on the board hereby created.

Failure to perform imposed duties, how punished. Section 11. Any official or person who shall wilfully fail, neglect or refuse to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by the provisions of this act, shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not more than six months.

Attorney general shall furnish legal assistance to the board. Section 12. It shall be the duty of the attorney general and of the several county attorneys within their respective counties when so required, to furnish such legal assistance, counsel or advice as the board may require in the discharge of its duties.

Secretary shall have been a resident of Maine for five years. Section 13. The secretary of said board shall have been a resident of the state of Maine for at least five years.

Approved April 9, 1913.
