Chapter 218.*CHAP. 218

An Act to Amend Section Eleven of Chapter One Hundred and Sixteen of the Revised Statutes, as Amended by Section One of Chapter Fifty-three of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Five, as Further Amended by Chapter One Hundred and Eighty-three of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seven, Relating to Salaries of Officers of the Senate and House of Representatives.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

Section I. Section eleven of chapter one hundred and sixteen of the revised statutes, as amended by section one of chapter fifty-three of the public laws of nineteen hundred and five, as further amended by chapter one hundred and eighty-three of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seven, is hereby amended by striking out the sixth and seventh paragraphs of said section as amended and substituting therefor the following:

Section 11 of chapter 116, R. S. as amended by section 1 of chapter 53, P. L. of 1905, as amended by chapter 183, P. L. of 1907, further amended.

'The secretary of the senate and clerk of the House of Representatives, eleven hundred dollars each for their services during the session of the legislature. Assistant secretary and assistant clerk, six hundred dollars each for services rendered during the session of the legislature. Messengers four hundred dollars each and assistant messengers, folders and assistant folders, post-masters and door-keepers, three hundred dollars each for services rendered during the session of the legislature.

'Pages to the Senate and to the House of Representatives one hundred and fifty dollars each for services rendered during the session of the legislature,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

'Section II. Each member of the executive council shall receive the same compensation and travel as a representative to the legislature, for services as a councilor during the session of the council commencing in January and closing immediately after the adjournment of the legislature. For services at other sessions of the council, each member thereof shall receive twenty dollars for each session, and actual expenses; for authorized services on committees when the council is not in session, and for services on the committee to examine the state prison, each councilor shall receive five dollars a day and actual expenses.

Compensation of members of the executive council.

Each member of the senate and house of representatives shall receive three hundred dollars for the regular session of the legislature, and two dollars for every ten miles' travel from his
