Approved March 18, 1913.

Chapter 122.

An Act to Extend the Powers of the Limerick Water and Electric Company.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Powers extended.

The Limerick Water and Electric Company, a corporation created and existing by virtue of chapter one hundred and fifty-nine of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred seven, as amended by chapter one hundred and seventeen of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred nine, is hereby authorized and empowered to exercise and enjoy all of its corporate rights, powers and privileges, in the towns of Parsonsfield and Cornish in the county of York, Porter and Hiram in the county of Oxford and Baldwin in the county of Cumberland, in addition to the towns named in its said act of incorporation and the act amendatory thereof; provided, however, that the said corporation shall not make, sell, distribute or supply gas or electricity in or to any of the said towns wherein any other corporation is engaged in the said business, or is authorized to engage in the business of making, selling, or distributing gas or electricity, without the consent of such other corporation.

—proviso.

Approved March 18, 1913.

Chapter 123.

An Act Relating to The Jerguson Manufacturing Company.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Purposes of the corporation extended.

The corporate purposes of The Jerguson Manufacturing Company, a corporation organized under the general laws of the state of Maine, in Kittery, in said state, on July thirtieth, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and six, which in the original certificate of organization read as follows, to wit:

“To carry on a foundry and general machine shop,” are hereby amended, so that as amended they shall read as follows:

“To conduct and manage a foundry and general machine shop, with all the business incidental thereto, and to carry on the business of manufacturing and selling engines, boilers, steam and water gauges, machinery and machinery fittings and accessories of all kinds, and of buying, selling and dealing in metals, glass and all articles necessary and incidental to such business.

Also to buy, sell and deal in all other kinds of property, both real and personal, incidental or beneficial to such business.

Also to buy, sell and deal in stocks, bonds and rights of other corporations organized for similar purposes, and take out letters patent in its own name, and purchase patent rights, licenses and rights under patents owned by others, and make all necessary contracts connected with and incidental to all of the above purposes.'

Approved March 18, 1913.

CHAP. 124

Chapter 124.

An Act Relating to the Use of Automobiles in the Town of Mount Desert in Hancock County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. So much of chapter one hundred and thirty-three of the private and special laws of the state of Maine for the year nineteen hundred and nine as relates to the town of Mount Desert, in Hancock county and the state of Maine, is hereby repealed.

Repeal of part of chapter 133, P. & S. laws of 1909.

Section 2. Section one of chapter twenty-three of the private and special laws of the state of Maine for the year nineteen hundred and seven is hereby amended by striking out all of said section after the word "automobile" in the third line thereof, and inserting in the place thereof the following words: 'On any or all of the highways or townways in said town which said by-law may declare to be for any reason dangerous or unsuitable for their use. Any section of road so closed shall be marked at the entrance thereof by sign-boards in large letters, "no automobiles allowed on this road,"' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Section 1 of chapter 23, P. & S. laws of 1907, amended.

'Section 1. The town of Mount Desert, in the county of Hancock, at any legal meeting of the voters thereof, may adopt by-laws prohibiting the use of automobiles on any or all of the highways or townways in said town which said by-law may declare to be for any reason dangerous or unsuitable for their use. Any section of road so closed shall be marked at the entrance thereof by sign-boards in large letters, "no automobiles allowed on this road."'

Voters of town may prohibit use of automobiles on highways.

—closed roads shall be marked by signs.

The term automobile as used in this section applies to all motor vehicles propelled by power. The town of Mt. Desert
