Chapter 163.

An Act Establishing a Close Time on Lobsters in the Waters of Jonesport and Addison, in Washington County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

Close time on lobsters in waters of Jonesport and Addison.

Section 1. No person shall take, catch, kill or destroy any lobsters between the first day of July and the first day of September in each year in any of the waters of Jonesport and Addison in Washington county, within the following points: Commencing at the spindle in Pleasant river and running southwest by south, three and three-fourths miles, abreast the buoy on Barton's ledge; thence south by west one-fourth west, five and one-third miles; thence east southeast, eight and one-fourth miles; thence east three fourths north to the whistling buoy off Moose-Peak; thence northeast, seven and three-fourths miles, to a point half the distance from Scabby Island ledge to the Brothers; thence north by west three-fourths west, one and one-half miles; thence northwest, two and two-thirds miles; thence northwest by west two miles; thence north by east, three-fourths miles; thence west by north one half north to the head of Mason's Bay; and no person shall set a trap within said waters for the purpose of taking, catching, killing or destroying any lobsters between said dates, under a penalty of one dollar for each lobster so taken, caught, killed or destroyed, and under a penalty of five dollars for each lobster trap so set for said purpose.

—closed waters specified.

—penalty for setting trap within said waters.

Section 2. All fines and penalties provided for by this act may be recovered as provided by section forty-eight of chapter two hundred and eighty-five of the public laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-seven.

Fines and penalties, how recovered.

Approved March 25, 1913.
