PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-Sixth
Legislature

1913

'Section 1. J. P. Cilley, H. W. Wight and True P. Pierce of Rockland, Joshua L. Jordan, C. Prince and Greenleaf Cilley of Thomaston, E. B. Nealley of Bangor, Maine, H. P. Starr of Spencer, Massachusetts, and Ellis Spear of Washington, District of Columbia, with their associates and successors, are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name of the Iland Cottage Company, with all the rights, powers and privileges, and subject to all the duties and liabilities provided in the laws of this state, concerning similar corporations; and said corporation is authorized to purchase, lease, or in any legal mode acquire and hold, and to sell and convey real and personal estate and property to an amount not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars at any one time; and to make all necessary by-laws for the furtherance of the purposes of this act and the government of said corporation, which are not inconsistent with the laws of the state.'

Section 2. Said act is further amended by inserting therein, after section three, two sections, to be numbered sections four and five respectively, as follows:

'Section 4. Said corporation may issue its bonds to an amount not to exceed its issued capital stock and secure the same by mortgage of its franchise and property.'

'Section 5. The capital stock of said corporation shall be ten thousand dollars and may be increased from time to time in the manner provided for the increase of the capital stock of corporations by the statutes of Maine; not to exceed in the aggregate five hundred thousand dollars; and by renumbering sections four and five of said act so that the same shall be sections six and seven respectively.'

Approved March 25, 1913.
