Whereas in the publication of chapter seventy-two of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred eleven, entitled "An Act to Provide a Charter for the City of Gardiner" as it appears in the published laws of the state of Maine of nineteen hundred eleven, there was omitted from section twenty-five of said law after the word "ordinance" and before the word "to" in the twenty-ninth line the words following:

'To the qualified voters of the city at the next annual city election.

Form of question to be submitted to voters.

—majority vote shall make ordinance valid.

The votes upon such ordinance, submitted as aforesaid, shall be taken by ballot in answer to the question: 'Shall the ordinance (stating the nature of the same) be passed?' which shall be printed on the ballots after the list of candidates, if there be any. If a majority of the qualified voters voting on the proposed ordinance shall vote in favor thereof, it shall thereupon become a valid and binding ordinance of the city, subject to any provision of statute law relative to approval, publication or notice, and no such ordinance passed as aforesaid by the city council, upon petition as aforesaid, or which shall be adopted as aforesaid at any such regular or special election, shall be repealed or amended except by the qualified voters of the city voting at any election not specially called for the purpose.

Any number of ordinances requested by petition as aforesaid may be voted upon at the same election in accordance with the provisions of this section, but there shall not be more than one special election in any period of six months for that purpose.

CHAP. 155

Other ordinances may be voted on at same election.

The city council may submit a proposition for the repeal of any such ordinance, or for amendments thereof, to be voted upon at any succeeding annual city election; and should such proposition so submitted receive a majority of the votes cast thereon at such election, the ordinance shall thereby be repealed or amended accordingly.

Repeal of ordinances may be voted on at any annual election.

The votes upon such repeal or amendment at an annual city election shall be taken by ballot in answer to the question: 'Shall the ordinance (stating the nature of the same) be repealed, or amended (stating the nature of the amendment)?' which shall be printed on the ballots after the list of candidates if there be any.

Form of question to be voted on for repeal or amendment.

The city council may also submit any ordinance proposed by them to the qualified voters at any annual or special city election, to be voted on by ballot at such election, and the manner in which such an ordinance shall be submitted to the voters, and the form in which the question shall be printed on the official ballots shall be as prescribed for ordinances submitted by petition, and amendments or repeals submitted by the city council as aforesaid.
