Chapter 239.

Resolve, Relating to the Trust Fund Held by the State for the Penobscot Tribe of Indians.

Whereas the report of the state auditor for the years nineteen hundred seven and nineteen hundred eight shows that through errors in the charging up of interest and in proper crediting of other items, the books of the state treasurer on December thirty-first, nineteen hundred eight, did not show the correct amount in the hands of the state held in trust for the benefit of the Penobscot tribe of Indians; that the amount in said fund as it appeared on the books of the treasurer on said December thirty-first, was seventy-two thousand, three hundred twenty-eight dollars and forty-eight cents, while according to said auditor's report the correct amount in the hands of the state in said fund was eighty-nine thousand, five hundred ninety-two dollars and forty-four cents, and Preamble.
