Chapter 19.

An Act Additional to Chapter Thirty-two of the Revised Statutes, as Amended by Chapter Two Hundred Six of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred Thirteen, Relating to the Protection of Muskrats in the Town of Fryeburg, in the County of Oxford, and in the Town of Bridgton, in the County of Cumberland.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Providing for a closed time on muskrats in certain ponds of Cumberland and Oxford counties.

For a period of four years from the time this act takes effect no person shall take, catch, trap, kill or destroy any muskrat or muskrats at any time in Lower Kezar pond, in the town of Fryeburg in the county of Oxford, and in the town of Bridgton in the county of Cumberland, or in the outlet stream of said Lower Kezar pond, or in the Kezar meadows, so-called, adjacent to said pond, (which meadows are bounded by the outlet stream of said pond, by the old Saco river, by the "Uplands," so-called, and by the "Upland" on the easterly side of said meadows) or in the east bog, so-called, or in the west bog, so-called, bounded by the "Uplands," and on the westerly side by a wire fence on land owned by E. C. Buzzell. No person shall have in possession any muskrat or muskrats, or part or parts thereof, taken in violation of any provision of this act. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall pay a fine of ten dollars and costs for each offense; and in addition thereto three dollars for each muskrat or part thereof taken, caught, trapped, killed, destroyed or had in possession in violation of any provision of this act.

—penalty.

Approved March 4, 1915.
