As Passed by the Seventy-Seventh Legislature

1915

CHAP. 36 in the form permitted by law the following: 'If the premium on this policy has not been paid to the company or its agent, or to the duly licensed insurance broker through whom the contract of insurance was negotiated, this policy may be cancelled by the company in the manner herein provided without tendering to the assured any part of the premium.'

Approved March 10, 1915.

Chapter 36.

An Act to Amend Section Seventy-one of Chapter Four of the Revised Statutes, as Amended by Chapter Fifty-nine of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred Seven, Relating to the Authority of Towns to Raise Money.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Ch. 4, Sec.
71, R. S., as amended by Ch. 59,
P. L. 1907, further amended.

Section 1. Section seventy-one of chapter four of the Revised Statutes, as amended by chapter fifty-nine of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred seven, is hereby further amended by inserting after the word "bridges" in the third line, the following words, 'and sprinkling streets; acquiring by purchase or otherwise suitable sites, or suitable sites and buildings, or erecting buildings for free public libraries,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Towns may raise money for certain purposes.

'Section 71. The voters, at a legal town meeting, may raise the necessary sums for the support of schools and the poor; making and repairing highways, town ways and bridges; and sprinkling streets; acquiring by purchase or otherwise suitable sites, or suitable sites and buildings, or erecting buildings for free public libraries; purchasing and fencing burying-grounds; maintaining private burying-grounds established before eighteen hundred eighty; purchasing or building and repairing a hearse and hearse-house for the exclusive use of its citizens; and for other necessary town charges.'

Approved March 10, 1915.

Chapter 37.

An Act to Provide for the Reduction in the Penal Sum of Probate Bonds.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Court may reduce penal sum.

If a surety company becomes surety on a bond given to a judge of probate, the court may, upon petition of any party in interest and after due notice to all parties interested, reduce
