Chapter 119.

An Act to Amend Section Sixty-nine of Chapter Eighty-three of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Duration of Attachments.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Ch. 83, Sec. 69, R. S., amended.

Section sixty-nine of chapter eighty-three of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words in the third and fourth lines, "except attachments of equities of redeeming real estate mortgaged or taken on execution," and by inserting in place thereof the words 'except attachments of real estate taken on execution,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Attachment continues thirty days after judgment—exceptions.

'Section 69. An attachment of real or personal estate continues for thirty days, and no longer, after final judgment in the original suit, and not in review or error; except attachments of real estate taken on execution; or equities of redemption sold on execution; or an obligee's conditional right to a conveyance of real estate sold on execution; or property attached and replevied; or property attached belonging to a person dying thereafter, or specially provided for in any other case; but an attachment of real estate shall expire at the end of five years from the date of filing the same in the office of the register of deeds in the county or district where the said real estate or some part of it is situated, unless the said register shall, within said period, at the request of the plaintiff or his attorney bring forward the same upon the book of attachments, and at the expiration of five years from the time of such first, or any subsequent bringing forward, such attachment shall expire unless within said period it is again brought forward in like manner. The register shall be entitled to the same fee for bringing forward such attachment upon the said book of attachments, as for the original entry thereof.'

—attachment of real estate expires in five years, subject to exceptions.

—fees of register.

Approved March 17, 1915.
