CHAP. 130

Chapter 130.

An Act in Relation to the Collecting and Preserving of Plans of Townships and Other Properties.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

County commissioner may collect and preserve plans of townships.

—copies, how prepared.

Filing and indexing of plans.

—may procure other plans of interest to county.

—shall not apply to plans of a proprietor of estate.

Section 1. The county commissioners of the several counties shall, at the expense of their respective counties, procure such plans of the townships in their counties as may be in existence, and if the original plans are not in existence, or cannot be had at a reasonable price, they shall procure copies of the most authentic plans known to exist. All such copies shall be on the best quality of linen paper backed with cloth.

Section 2. Suitable filing cases shall be provided in each registry of deeds for the reception and preservation of such plans and a suitable index shall be made of all such plans on file.

Section 3. Said commissioners may at their discretion procure such plans, other than township plans, of properties within their counties, either originals or copies, as they deem for the interest of their counties to have preserved on the files of the registry of deeds. This section shall not be construed to allow of the purchase of any plan which the proprietor of any estate is required by law to file with the registry of deeds.

Approved March 17, 1915.
