Chapter 181.

An Act to Amend Section Two of Chapter Twenty-five of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred Nine, Relating to Supplies Furnished to Any Person or Family While Placed in Quarantine by the Board of Health.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section two of chapter twenty-five of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred nine is hereby amended by adding to said section the words, 'but the provisions of this section shall not release the State from the obligations which are imposed upon it by sections thirty, thirty-one, thirty-two, and thirty-three of chapter twenty-seven of the Revised Statutes,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Ch. 25, Sec. 2, P. L., 1909, amended. —additional.

'Section 2. All expenses including all supplies of food and medicine including antitoxin incurred in carrying out the provisions of section one of this act, or incurred in furnishing families or persons affected with tuberculosis with burnable spitcups, or other supplies needed to prevent the spread of infection, or such part thereof as the board may determine, shall be deemed a legitimate expenditure for the protection of the public health and shall be charged to the account of incidental expenses of the town, but not to any pauper account, nor shall any person so quarantined and assisted, be considered a pauper, or be subject to disfranchisement for that cause unless such persons are already paupers as defined by the Revised Statutes; but the provisions of this section shall not release the State from the obligations which are imposed upon it by sections thirty, thirty-one, thirty-two, and thirty-three of chapter twenty-seven of the Revised Statutes.'

Expense incurred shall be deemed legitimate, and charged to town.

—expense shall not be placed on pauper account. State not released from further obligations.

Approved March 24, 1915.
