Chapter 198.

An Act to Amend Paragraph Seven of Section One Hundred of Chapter Fifteen of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Course of Study in Common Schools.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Paragraph seven of section one hundred of chapter fifteen of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended by adding after the word "studies" in the second line thereof the following: 'and the course of study prescribed by the State Superintendent of Schools shall be followed in all the public schools, provided, however, that upon the approval by the State Superintendent of any course arranged by the superintending school committee of any town said course shall be the authorized course for said town,' so that said paragraph as amended shall read as follows:

Ch. 15, Sec. 100, paragraph 7, R. S., amended.

'VII. To prescribe the studies to be taught in the common schools, reserving to town committees the right to prescribe additional studies and the course of study prescribed by the State Superintendent of Schools shall be followed in all public schools, provided, however, that upon the approval by the State Superintendent of any course arranged by the superintending school committee of any town said course shall be the authorized course for said town.'

Town committees may prescribe additional studies.

—all courses shall be approved by State Supt. of Schools.

Approved March 24, 1915.
