Chapter 261.

An Act to Amend Section Twenty-one of Chapter Sixty-nine of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Compensation of Guardians.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Ch. 69, Sec. 21, R. S., amended.

Section twenty-one of chapter sixty-nine of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended by striking out the last clause of said section, beginning with the words "and he" in the fourth line thereof, and substituting in place thereof the following, 'and if the judge is satisfied that such neglect or refusal is wilful or without reasonable cause, the guardian shall forfeit all allowance for his personal services,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Guardian shall settle with judge as herein provided.

'Section 21. Every guardian shall settle his account with the judge at least once in three years, and as much oftener as the judge cites him for that purpose; and neglect or refusal to do so, is a breach of his bond; he may be removed therefor, although the ward may be indebted to him, and if the judge is satisfied that such neglect or refusal is wilful or without reasonable cause, the guardian shall forfeit all allowance for his personal services.'

Approved March 31, 1915.
