Chapter 311.

CHAP. 311

AN Act to Amend Section One of Chapter Twenty-four of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred Seven, as Amended by Chapter Ten of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred Nine, in Relation to Reports of Hearings in Vacation in Law or Equity.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section one of chapter twenty-four of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred seven, as amended by chapter ten of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred nine, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following:

Ch. 24, Sec.
1, P. L., 1907, amended.

'Any justice of said court holding nisi prius terms of court in any county other than the county in which he resides, shall be reimbursed by the State for his expenses actually and reasonably incurred in holding such terms upon presentation to the State Auditor of a detailed statement of such expenses,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

—additional.

'Section 1. At any hearing in vacation of a cause in law or equity pending in the Supreme Judicial court, the presiding justice may, when necessary, appoint a stenographer other than his regularly appointed court stenographer to report the proceedings thereof, who shall receive for his services from the treasury of the county in which the cause is pending a sum not exceeding six dollars a day for attendance in addition to actual traveling expenses; but when at such hearings the presiding justice employs his regularly appointed stenographer, such stenographer shall receive from such treasury only the amount of his actual expenses incurred in attending the same; when any such hearing is had before a justice of said court other than one residing in the county where said hearing is held, such justice shall be reimbursed by the State for his expenses actually and reasonably incurred in attending said hearing upon presentation to the Governor and Council of a detailed statement of such expenses. Any justice of said court holding nisi prius terms of said court in any county other than the county in which he resides, shall be reimbursed by the State for his expenses actually and reasonably incurred in holding such terms upon presentation to the State Auditor of a detailed statement of such expenses.'
