Chapter 25.

An Act to Regulate the Employment of Subordinates by Legislative Committees.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. The Governor and Council shall, by a general order, to be revised at the beginning of each session of the Legislature, determine which of the legislative committees may have the service of subordinates and in what capacities, and shall fix the compensation to be paid to such subordinates. They shall also from time to time, during the session of the Legislature, when found necessary, authorize other necessary assistance to the committees.

Governor and Council shall regulate employment of subordinates.

Section 2. No legislative committee, or officials chosen by such committee shall employ clerks, stenographers, or other clerical help, at the expense of the State, until so authorized by the Governor and Council, and the subordinates employed by such authority shall receive no other compensation from the State, than that fixed by the Governor and Council.

—shall not employ clerical help unless authorized.

Approved March 10, 1915.
