Chapter 110.CHAP. 110

An Act Authorizing Barnard Plantation to Build and Maintain Its Roads and Bridges and to Raise Money Therefor.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

The municipal officers of Barnard plantation, in the county of Piscataquis, are hereby given all the powers of municipal officers of towns to lay out, alter, widen or repair public or private ways within said plantation, and to assess and expend such sums of money as said plantation may at its annual meeting raise therefor, in all respects as the municipal officers of towns may do; and so far as applicable the provisions of chapter twenty-three of the Revised Statutes shall apply to laying out, extending, altering, or repairing public or private ways in said plantation; and all the powers which towns now have to raise and expend money for the purpose of making and repairing ways, building bridges, and paying officers and agents, are hereby extended to said plantation.

Barnard plantation is authorized to build and maintain roads and bridges.

Approved March 23, 1915.
