CHAP. 194.

Chapter 194.

An Act to Amend Chapter One Hundred Thirty-five of the Private and Special Laws of Eighteen Hundred Seventy-five, Entitled, "An Act to Establish a Municipal Court in the City of Auburn," as Amended by Chapter One Hundred Eighty-six of the Private and Special Laws of the Same Year, Chapter Fifty-one of the Private and Special Laws of Eighteen Hundred Eighty-one, and Chapter One Hundred Fifty-two of the Private and Special Laws of Eighteen Hundred Ninety-one, Chapter Sixty-two of the Private and Special Laws of Eighteen Hundred Ninety-five, and Chapter Two Hundred Twenty-nine of the Private and Special Laws of Nineteen Hundred Three.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Ch. 135, P. & S. Laws 1875, as amended, further amended.

Section 1. Chapter one hundred thirty-five of the Private and Special Laws of eighteen hundred seventy-five, entitled, "An Act to Establish a Municipal Court in the City of Auburn," as amended by chapter one hundred eighty-six of the Private and Special Laws of the same year, chapter fifty-one of the Private and Special Laws of eighteen hundred eighty-one and chapter two hundred twenty-nine of the Private and Special Laws of eighteen hundred ninety-one, chapter sixty-two of the Private and Special Laws of eighteen hundred ninety-five, and chapter two hundred twenty-nine of the Private and Special Laws of nineteen hundred three, is hereby further amended so that the same, when amended, shall read as follows:

Auburn municipal court established.

'Section 1. A municipal court is hereby established in and for the city of Auburn, to be denominated the municipal court of the city of Auburn, which shall be a court of record and have a clerk and a seal, and consist of one judge, appointed as provided in the Constitution, who shall be a citizen of Auburn and a member of the bar of the county of Androscoggin, and who shall be, ex-officio, a justice of the peace and of the quorum, and have and exercise concurrent authority and jurisdiction with trial justices over all matters and things by law within their jurisdiction, and such authority and jurisdiction additional thereto as is conferred upon him by this act, and who shall receive from said city an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars to be paid to him in monthly payments.

Appointment and salary of the judge.

'Section 2. Said court shall have jurisdiction as follows:

The jurisdiction of the court shall be as set forth herein.

I. Exclusive jurisdiction of all offenses against the ordinances or by-laws of said city, and all such other criminal offenses and misdemeanors committed therein as are cognizable by trial justices; and concurrent jurisdiction with trial justices in the county of Androscoggin of all like offenses and misdemeanors not herein placed within its exclusive jurisdiction, when committed in any town or city in said county except Lewiston.

II. Exclusive original jurisdiction of all civil actions wherein the debt or damages demanded do not exceed twenty dollars, and both parties, or any plaintiff, and a person summoned as a trustee, reside in the city of Auburn, including prosecution for penalties in which said city is interested, and actions of forcible entry and detainer arising therein; and concurrent jurisdiction with trial justices in said county of all other civil actions and other civil proceedings cognizant by them, not within the exclusive jurisdiction of said court or of the municipal court of the city of Lewiston; provided, that any civil action in which the judge or clerk is interested, but which otherwise would be within the exclusive jurisdiction of said court, may be brought in and disposed of by the Lewiston municipal court in the same manner and with like effect as other actions therein.

III. Original jurisdiction concurrent with the Supreme Judicial court, of the offenses described in sections one, six, seven, eight and ten of chapter one hundred twenty-one of the Revised Statutes, when the alleged value of the property exceeds ten, but does not exceed fifty dollars; of the offenses described in section twenty-eight of chapter one hundred nineteen of the Revised Statutes; of the offense described in sections one and four of chapter one hundred twenty-seven of the Revised Statutes, when the alleged value of the property fraudulently obtained, mortgaged or sold, or fraudulently removed or concealed, does not exceed fifty dollars, and on conviction may punish for either of said offenses by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars and by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months; of the offense described in section nine of chapter one hundred twenty-seven of the Revised Statutes; of the offense described in chapter ninety-nine of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred five, relating to the fraudulent issue and use of transfer tickets upon public conveyances; of the offense described in section one of chapter two hundred fourteen of the Public Laws of nineteen hundred thirteen, relating to the defrauding of owners or keepers of garages; and also of the offense described in section six of chapter one hundred twenty-five of the Revised Statutes, and on conviction may punish therefor by fine not exceeding fifty dollars and by imprisonment in the county jail not more than thirty days; and also of the offenses described in section six of chapter one hundred forty-two of the Revised Statutes, and on conviction may sentence therefor to imprisonment in the county jail not more Original jurisdiction concurrent with Supreme Judicial and Lewiston municipal courts.

IV. Original jurisdiction concurrent with the Supreme Judicial court and the municipal court of the city of Lewiston, of all civil actions in which the debt or damages demanded, exceed twenty dollars, but do not exceed three hundred dollars and the defendant or a party summoned as trustee resides within the county of Androscoggin; provided, however, that any action wherein the debt or damage demanded exceeds twenty dollars, brought in said court, shall be removed by order of the judge into the Supreme Judicial court, on motion of the defendant, filed at the return term, if he files therewith, at the same time an affidavit that he believes he has a good defense to said action, in whole or in part, and in good faith intends to make such defense, and deposits with the clerk the fee of the clerk of the court above for entering said action therein; and when such removal has been ordered, the clerk shall file in the Supreme Judicial court at its next term in the county, an attested copy of the writ in such action and of said motion and affidavit, and order of court thereon, and pay to the clerk of said court the fee for entering the same, for which services he shall be entitled to the same fees allowed for the necessary copies in actions carried up by appeal, to be paid to him by the defendant and recovered by him with his costs, if he prevail in the suit.

No authority exceeding that of trial justice.

'Section 3. Nothing in the foregoing section shall be construed to give said court any authority exceeding that of trial justices to hear and determine any civil action in which the title to real estate, according to the pleadings or brief statement filed therein by either party, is in question, but all such actions brought therein shall be removed to the Supreme Judicial court in the county, or otherwise disposed of as provided in section three of chapter eighty-five of the Revised Statutes.

Qualifications and appointment of clerk.

'Section 4. The clerk of said court shall be a citizen of said Auburn and a member of the bar of the county of Androscoggin, and shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, for a term of four years; and he shall be sworn, and give bond to the county as required by law. In case of the absence of said clerk from court, or should a vacancy occur in the office of clerk, the judge may appoint a clerk, pro tempore, who shall be sworn by said judge, and act during such absence, or until such vacancy be filled.

—clerk pro tempore.

Said clerk shall receive from said city an annual salary of twelve hundred dollars and an annual allowance of four hundred dollars for clerk hire, to be paid to him in monthly payments.

CHAP. 191

—salary of clerk.

‘Section 5. It shall be the duty of said clerk to attend the sessions of said court held for civil business and during all criminal proceedings before it, and keep a record of its doings; and he may administer oaths and affirmations, and shall have all such other powers and perform all such other duties, relative to proceedings in said court, in all matters, civil or criminal, within its jurisdiction, as clerks of the Supreme Judicial court have and perform relative to like proceedings in that court. He may receive criminal complaints and accusations in bastardy and issue warrants thereon, to be returned before said court and shall make and sign all subpoenas and all processes of commitment issued thereby, but any such warrant or other precept signed and issued by the judge shall be equally valid. Should the judge of said court be absent or should a vacancy occur in the office of judge thereof, said clerk during such absence or vacancy, shall have all the powers and discharge all the duties of said judge in relation to the criminal business of said court.

Duties of the clerk.

‘Section 6. Said court shall have authority to administer all necessary oaths or affirmations; to hear and determine civil causes before it, and to render judgment therein, and issue execution upon the same, such execution, except when otherwise provided by law, to have the same force and be satisfied in the same manner as if issued by the Supreme Judicial court; to compel the attendance of witnesses, and punish persons duly summoned as witnesses, if they refuse or neglect to attend; to make and enforce such rules and regulations not repugnant to law, as may be necessary therein for the prompt administration of justice; and all the provisions of law relating to proceedings and practice in the Supreme Judicial court, and to the attachment of real or personal estate, the taxation of costs, the rendition of judgments and the issuing, service, satisfaction and return of executions shall be extended to and apply to said municipal court and to proceedings therein, except so far as such application may be modified by the provisions of this act.

Authority of the court.

‘Section 7. Writs in civil actions commenced in said court shall be in the usual forms and all such writs and all other precepts and processes, civil or criminal, issued by said court, shall bear teste of the judge under seal of said court, and be signed by the judge or by the clerk, and be of equal validity when signed by either. All such writs shall be made returnable at a term held not less than seven nor more than sixty-five days from their date, and service thereof may be made at any time not less than seven days before the return day thereof, except that when any defendant or trustee named in any such writ is a corporation service upon such corporation must be made at least thirty days before the return day. In a prosecution in said court for an offense against any ordinance of the city of Auburn, it shall not be necessary to recite such ordinance in the complaint, or to set out the offense more particularly than in a prosecution for an offense against a public statute.

-exception.

Time of holding court.

'Section 8. Said court shall be held on the fourth Tuesday of every month for the entry, trial and determination of civil actions of all kinds that may lawfully be brought before it, and for the transaction of other civil business, and upon each other Tuesday for the entry, trial and determination of actions of forcible entry and detainer only, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at such suitable place within the city of Auburn as said city shall provide. When held for civil business it may be adjourned from time to time by the judge, but it shall be considered as at all times in session for the cognizance of criminal actions. The municipal officers of said city shall designate one of its police officers to be in attendance on said court at its sessions for the purpose of preserving order and executing all legal orders and processes to him directed by the court.

-police officer to preserve order.

Duties of clerk when judge is absent.

'Section 9. Should the judge be prevented by any cause from attending at the time designated in the foregoing section for holding monthly or civil term of said court, the clerk shall enter all actions then returnable, and all pleas, motions, disclosures, accounts in set off and other papers then filed, and adjourn the court to a day certain, not beyond the third day thereafter. On that day, if the judge is still absent, the clerk shall, by public proclamation, adjourn the court without delay; but shall first record default and enter up judgment in all actions of the term not answered to by the defendants except trustee actions, and in all trustee actions not answered to by the defendants or by the trustees therein named and summoned, and also by consent of the parties in any continued action cognizable at such term, and shall continue all other actions; provided, that all continuances of actions of forcible entry and detainer in said court, whether by the clerk as above provided, or by order of the judge when present, shall be only to the next term, weekly or monthly, at which such actions are cognizable. In case a vacancy should occur in the office of the judge, any civil term of said court occurring during such vacancy, shall be adjourned by the clerk from time to time, not more than three days at any one time, without transacting any other business, and without detriment to any action or proceeding pending therein until such vacancy is filled.

'Section 10. All actions in said court shall be entered on the first day of the term at which they are made returnable and not afterwards, except by special permission. When a defendant legally served fails to appear during the first two days of the return term, he may be defaulted and the charge in the declaration taken to be true; but if he afterwards appear during the term, the court may permit the default to be taken off. Pleas in abatement must be filed on or before the second day of the term.

—pleas.

'Section 11. In actions of forcible entry and detainer brought in said court, the defendant's pleading in bar shall be the general issue with a brief statement of any special matters of defense, and must be filed within the first two days of the return term, or the defendant shall be defaulted, unless the court enlarge the time, for which it may impose terms. In any other actions therein the pleadings in bar may be the same as required in the Supreme Judicial court, and must be filed on or before the second day of the next monthly term after entry, or the defendant shall be defaulted, unless the plaintiff consents to an extension of the time or the court for good cause, with or without terms at its discretion, allows such extension. All actions of forcible entry and detainer, and any other action in which either party shall have given written notice to the adverse party ten days before the return day that he desires a trial at the first term, shall be in order for trial at the return term, and so remain until tried or otherwise finally disposed of, unless continued by consent, or on motion of either party for good cause, in which latter case the court may impose reasonable terms, but all other actions not defaulted or otherwise finally disposed of, shall be continued as of course, and be in order for trial at the next term.

Actions of forcible entry and detainer, filing of.

'Section 12. Any party may appeal from a judgment or sentence of said court to the Supreme Judicial court, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as from a judgment or sentence of a trial justice.

—appeal.

'Section 13. The costs and fees allowed to parties, attorneys and witnesses in all civil actions in said court, in which the debt or damage demanded does not exceed twenty dollars, including actions of forcible entry and detainer, shall be the same allowed by trial justices in like actions before them, except that the —fees for service of judge regulated.

‘Section 14. No fees shall be allowed or taxed for said judge in any civil action or proceeding in said court; and none shall be taxed for him in any criminal action or proceeding therein for any service, the fee for which is to be allowed the clerk as provided in section fifteen, but for any other services in criminal matters, the same fees shall be allowed for him and at the same rates as are allowed by law to trial justices for like services, except that his fee for a complaint and warrant shall be one dollar, and for the trial of a complaint or of a libel of intoxicating liquors, two dollars for the first day and one dollar for every additional day engaged therein, all of which fees shall inure to the city of Auburn, and be paid to the treasurer of said city, whose receipt shall be a sufficient voucher for such payment.

—fees to be paid to city.

Fees for clerk's services, regulated.

‘Section 15. The clerk of said court shall tax for his services in a civil action the same fees, the trial fee excepted, allowed by law to trial justices, for like services and at the same rates, except that the fee for entering, filing and recording an action shall be sixty cents and for taxing costs twenty-five cents, said fees to be paid to him by the party at whose instance the services are performed, and taxed with the costs of such party if he prevails in the suit. For his services in criminal proceedings there shall be taxed seventy-five cents for entering complaint, swearing witnesses, filing papers, and certifying costs to the county commissioners, forty cents for taxing the costs and recording judgment, ten cents for each subpoena, twenty-five cents for each mittimus and each recognizance, fifty cents for making and recording each libel of intoxicating liquors, and twenty-five cents for each order to destroy or to restore such liquors, said fees to be taxed in the bills of costs, and unless paid into court, to be allowed by the county commissioners, and paid by the county treasurer. All fees of said clerk as aforesaid in civil and criminal actions shall inure to the city of Auburn and shall be paid to the treasurer of said city, whose receipt shall be a sufficient voucher for such payment.

—fees payable to city treasurer

'Section 16. The clerk shall receive all fines, forfeitures and costs paid into said court in criminal proceedings, and shall pay over to the parties or witnesses the fees allowed to them, if called for within one year, except the fees of the judge and clerk, which together with all fees received for his services in civil actions he shall account for and pay over to the treasurer of the city of Auburn during the month following that in which the same are received. All fines and forfeitures and all fees so received and not seasonably called for, he shall account for any pay over at the time and in the manner required by law, but no account required by this section shall be deemed sufficient unless approved and signed by the judge.

CHAP. 195

—fines, forfeitures and costs, how provided for.

'Section 17. It shall be the duty of the city of Auburn to provide a suitable court room, conveniently situated and appropriately fitted up and furnished, in which to hold said court, and keep the same in proper condition for use, and also to provide for said court an appropriate seal, and all blanks, blank books, dockets, stationery and other things necessary in the transaction of its business; and said city shall have authority to raise money for that purpose and for the payment of the salaries of the judge and clerk.

City of Auburn shall provide suitable court room, fixtures, stationery, etc.

'Section 18. Trial justices are hereby restricted from exercising any jurisdiction in the city of Auburn over any matter or thing, civil or criminal, except such as are within the jurisdiction of justices of the peace and quorum and except that they may issue warrants on complaints for criminal offenses, to be returned before said municipal court.'

Rights of trial justices restricted.

Section 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed.

—inconsistent acts repealed.

Section 3. This act shall take effect when approved.
