CHAP. 247

secretary of state, so that it may be used in any pardon hearing before the governor and council, and the expense thereof shall be paid by the state. The state shall pay the expense of having the evidence and charge transcribed by the official stenographer in any murder cases heretofore tried, where a pardon is sought by one serving a life sentence in the state prison, who is unable to pay therefor, if he, or she, claims to be innocent of the crime, the transcript to be filed in the office of the secretary of state, for use as above provided.'

Approved April 7, 1917.

Chapter 247.

An Act to Amend Section One Hundred Forty-three of Chapter Sixteen of the Revised Statutes Relating to the Admission of Students to State Normal Schools.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 16, § 143, relating to application for admission to normal schools, amended. Section one hundred forty-three of chapter sixteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "two years" in the fourth line thereof and inserting in place thereof the words 'the first two years of teaching,' and by adding to said section the words 'otherwise they shall pay tuition at the rate of fifty dollars per year,' so that said section when amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 143. Applicants to teach in state first two years after graduation, or pay $50 per year for tuition. Applicants for admission shall be sixteen years of age if females, and seventeen if males, and shall signify their intention to become teachers and come under obligation to teach in this state for at least one year, and if they receive a diploma, the first two years of teaching after they have graduated; on these conditions they shall be received without charge for tuition, otherwise they shall pay tuition at the rate of fifty dollars per year.'

Approved April 7, 1917.

Chapter 248.

An Act to Designate Truant Officers as Attendance Officers.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Words "attendance officer" substituted for term "truant officer" in all statutes. All sections of all chapters of the revised statutes including amendments thereto in which the words "truant officer" occur are hereby amended by inserting in place of said words the words 'attendance officer;' and all sections in which the words "truant officers" occur are hereby amended by inserting in place of said words the words 'attendance officers.'

Approved April 7, 1917.
