Chapter 294.

An Act to Provide for the Seizure and Forfeiture of Vehicles Carrying Intoxicating Liquor Intended for Illegal Sale.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Vehicles, not common carriers, used for illegal transportation of intoxicating liquor, may be confiscated. All automobiles, trucks, wagons, boats or vessels, and vehicles of every kind, not common carriers, containing intoxicating liquors intended for illegal sale within the state, found within the state in the possession or in the control of any person using them for the transportation of intoxicating liquors intended for illegal sale within the state, shall be seized by any officer seizing the liquors transported therein, shall be libeled as is provided for the libeling of intoxicating liquors and the vessels in which they are contained under chapter one hundred and twenty-seven of the revised statutes, and shall be declared forfeited by the court and sold in the same manner as is provided for the sale of vessels containing intoxicating liquors. Any claimant of any such boat, vessel, or vehicle must allege and prove that the use of such boat, vessel or vehicle for the transportation of intoxicating liquors as aforesaid was without his knowledge or consent.

Approved April 7, 1917.

Chapter 295.

An Act for the Enforcement of Liens on Watches, Clocks and Jewelry for Labor and Materials Furnished in Making and Repairing Same.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Mechanics lien on watches, clocks and jewelry, created. Every individual, partnership or corporation, having an established place of business in this state, engaged in making, altering or repairing any watch, clock or jewelry or expending any labor or materials thereon, shall have a lien upon such watch, clock or jewelry for his reasonable compensation for said labor and materials, which shall take precedence of all other claims and incumbrances, and such watch, clock or jewelry shall be exempt from attachment or execution until such lien and the cost of satisfying it are satisfied.
