CHAP. 80

on said Indian reservation and deliver such list to the Indian agent of said tribe at least ten days before the first day of April of each year.

Sec. 2. Dogs to be licensed; fee and general provisions. Each member of said tribe and all other persons residing on said reservation, who owns, keeps, or has in his possession a dog, more than four months old, shall annually before the first day of April cause it to be registered, numbered, described and licensed for one year from said first day of April, in the office of said agent, and shall keep around its neck a collar distinctly marked with the owner's name and its registered number, and shall pay to said agent for a license one dollar and fifteen cents for each male dog, and three dollars and fifteen cents for each female dog, and any member of said tribe becoming the owner or keeper of a dog after the first day of April, not duly licensed, shall cause it to be registered, numbered, described and licensed as provided above.

Sec. 3. License fees; how expended. Said agent shall issue said license and receive the money therefor, and turn the same into the fund for the municipal purposes of said tribe, retaining to his own use fifteen cents for each license issued.

Sec. 4. Penalty for violation. Any member of said tribe who keeps a dog contrary to the provisions of this act shall pay a fine of ten dollars, or be punished by imprisonment in the jail in the county of Penobscot for not more than thirty days.

Sec. 5. Dogs, not licensed, to be killed; warrant to be issued by agent. Said agent shall annually within ten days from the first day of May, issue a warrant to the constable of said tribe directing him to proceed forthwith, either to kill or cause to be killed, all dogs on said reservation not licensed and collared according to the provisions of this act, and to enter complaint against the owners or keepers thereof. Such constable shall receive from the fund derived from said registration one dollar for each dog so killed.

Approved March 22, 1917.

Chapter 80.

An Act to Enlarge the Authority of the Home for Aged Couples and Old Men in the City of Bath to take and Hold Property.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

May hold property to extent of $250,000. The Home for Aged Couples and Old Men of Bath in the County of Sagadahoc, a charitable corporation existing under the general laws of the state, is hereby empowered to take and hold by purchase, gift, devise or bequest, personal or real estate, in all not exceeding in value two hundred fifty thousand dollars, owned at any one time, and may use and dispose thereof only for the purposes for which it was organized.

Approved March 22, 1917.
