OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-Ninth Legislature

1919

[supplied from page 3 of volume]

CHAP. 11

chapter seven of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the word "five" in the fourth line thereof, and substituting in place, the word 'six', so that the section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 21. Polls to be kept open until six in the afternoon. Meetings for the election of state and county officers, and for the election of municipal officers in cities, may be opened at six o'clock in the forenoon, and shall be opened not later than ten o'clock in the forenoon; the polls shall be kept open until six o'clock in the afternoon and shall then be closed. Notice of the time of opening and closing shall be given in the warrant calling the meeting.'

Approved February 26, 1919.

Chapter 11.

An Act to Repeal Section Sixteen of Chapter Thirty-seven of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Capacity of Milk Cans.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 37, § 16; relating to capacity of milk cans used in wholesale trade, repealed. Section sixteen of chapter thirty-seven of the revised statutes is hereby repealed.

Approved February 27, 1919.

Chapter 12.

An Act Relating to Damage by Flowage of Public Lands and Highways on the Islands in Penobscot River within the Limits of the Indian Reservation of the Penobscot Tribe of Indians.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Governor and Council to maintain action of trespass against Bangor Power Company for flowage damage on Old Town Indian Island, when damages not settled amicably. The governor and council are hereby empowered and authorized to settle any and all damages resulting directly or indirectly to the public lands and highways within the limits of the Indian Reservation of the Penobscot Tribe of Indians by reason of the flowage of said lands and highways caused by the dam built across Penobscot river from the city of Old Town to the town of Milford and the one built at Gilman Falls across said river in said city of Old Town and now owned and maintained by the Bangor Power Company located at Bangor in the county of Penobscot; and the governor and council are hereby empowered and authorized to maintain an action of trespass in the name of the State of Maine against said Bangor Power Company for all damage caused by said flowage, in any court proper to try the same; provided compensation for said damage has previous to the commencement of the action been demanded by the agent of said tribe of Indians of the treasurer
