Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 53, § 91; relating to statement of condition of insurance companies to be filed with commissioner. Section ninety-one of chapter fifty-three of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words, "fifteenth day of February," at the end of said section, and substituting therefor the words, 'first day of March,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 91. Commissioner may extend date of filing to March 1st, instead of February 15th. Every insurance company, doing business in the state, shall annually, by the thirty-first day of January, render to the commissioner either an exact statement, under oath, of its condition as it existed on the thirty-first day of the previous December, or its last exhibit, setting forth its condition as required by blanks furnished by the commissioner, and any company, association or society which neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of this section, or to file its premium tax return, or to pay the tax for which it shall be liable, as required by the laws of this state, forfeits five dollars a day for each day's neglect, provided, that for good cause shown, the commissioner may extend the time within which the statement required by this section may be filed, to a date not later than the first day of March.'

Approved March 8, 1919.
