Chapter 71.

An Act to Amend Section One of Chapter Eight of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Tenure of Office of the Land Agent.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1, R. S., c. 8, § 1; relating to qualifications and tenure of office of land agent, amended. Section one of chapter eight of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "hold his office during their pleasure" in the second and third lines of said section and inserting in place thereof the words, 'be a trained forester or a person of skill and experience in the care and preservation of forest lands, and shall hold such office for a term of four years', so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 1. Tenure of office increased to four years; appointee must be trained forester or have had experience in care of forest lands. The governor with the advice and consent of council shall appoint a land agent, who shall be a trained forester or a person of skill and experience in the care and preservation of forest lands and shall hold his office for a term of four years and shall give bond to the state in the sum of fifty thousand dollars with sufficient sureties or with one or more surety companies authorized to do business in the state, as surety or sureties, satisfactory to the governor and council for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. The land agent shall superintend and manage the sale and settlement of the public lands. He shall not when appointed, or while in office, be directly or indirectly concerned in the lumber business on the state lands, or in the purchase thereof, or of any timber or grass growing or cut thereon.'

Sec. 2. The first appointment under the foregoing provision shall be made January first in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twenty.

Approved March 17, 1919.
