and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him. Evidence so taken and received shall have the same force and effect as though taken and received by said commission, and shall authorize action by said commission as though by it taken and received. When objection is made to the admissibility of evidence the examiner shall note the same with the reasons therefor and incorporate such notation and reasons in his report of the evidence according to the practice in taking depositions. The commission shall disregard or consider the evidence so objected to according to the rules governing the taking of evidence before the commission, and shall report its rulings thereon in its decision of the case. The commission shall fix the salary of said examiner.'

Chapter 80.

An Act to Amend Section Sixty-seven of Chapter Fifty-six of the Revised Statutes, Relating to Crossings.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 56, § 67; relating to the establishment of temporary crossings by railroads for lumbering operations. Section sixty-seven of chapter fifty-six of the revised statutes is hereby amended as follows, viz:

After the words "lumbering operations" in the second line thereof add the following: 'and for the transportation in ordinary vehicles of wood, coal, ice, hay or other commodities'; also by striking out the word "lum-
