Chapter 93.

An Act to Amend Section One Hundred and Thirty-six of Chapter Sixteen of the Revised Statutes, Relating to State Aid for Industrial Courses in High Schools and Academies.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 16, § 136; relating to state aid for manual training in high school or academy. Section one hundred and thirty-six of chapter sixteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out in the twelfth line thereof the words "five hundred" and inserting in place thereof the words 'seven hundred and fifty', so that said section, when amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 136. Amount of aid increased from $500 to $750. The superintending school committee having charge of any free high school, or the trustees of any incorporated academy may provide for instruction therein in the principles of agriculture and the domestic and mechanic arts. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the governor and council, from returns made as herein provided, that in any free high school or academy instruction has been furnished during the preceding year in the principles of agriculture, the mechanic arts or domestic science, the governor and council shall direct the treasurer of state to pay to the town supporting such free high school, or to the treasurer of such academy, in addition to other state aid if any, a sum equal to two-thirds the total expenditure for instruction in each of said courses; provided, however, that no school shall receive a total in excess of seven hundred and fifty dollars in any one year for the support of said courses; and provided, that state aid shall not be allowed for any course which has an average attendance of less than twelve students; and, provided further, that such aid shall not be granted unless the course of study, equipment and qualifications of instructors shall first have been approved by the state superintendent of public schools.'

Approved March 19, 1919.

Chapter 94.

An Act to Amend Section Four of Chapter Forty of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Filing of Examination Questions with the State Librarian for Public Reference.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 40; § 4; relating to examinations given by state board of accountancy, amended. Section four of chapter forty of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding the words, 'An exact copy of the examination questions shall be filed with the state librarian for public reference within thirty days after date of examination', after the word "thereof" in the sixth line, so that said section, when amended, shall read as follows:
