Chapter 119.

AN Act to Amend Section Six of Chapter Sixty-six of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, as Amended by Chapter Two Hundred and Forty-four of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, Relating to Non-resident Fishing Licenses.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

1917, c. 66, § 6; 1917, c. 244; relating to disposition of non-resident fishing license fees. Section six of chapter sixty-six of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, as amended by chapter two hundred and forty-four of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, is hereby amended by striking out all of said section and by substituting therefor the following section:

'Sec. 6. Appropriation to which license fees shall be credited. All license fees collected by virtue of this act shall be paid by the commissioner of inland fisheries and game to the state treasurer, and shall be credited to the appropriation for the operation of fish hatcheries and feeding stations for fish, for the protection of fish, game and birds, and for printing the report of the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, and other expenses incident to the administration of the department of inland fisheries and game, and shall be expended by said commissioner for the propagation and protection of inland fish in this state, and said commissioner is hereby authorized to receive and expend said moneys in the manner and for the purposes as herein specified; provided, however, that if any license fees are not expended during the year in which they are collected the unexpended balance shall not lapse but shall be available for the purposes herein specified until expended.'

Approved March 28, 1919.

Chapter 120.

An Act Granting to Women the Right to Vote for Presidential Electors.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Women may vote for presidential electors; qualifications. Every female citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, excepting paupers, persons under guardianship, and Indians not taxed, who, not being prevented by physical disability from so doing, is able to read the constitution of the state in the English language, in such manner as to show that she is neither prompted nor reciting from memory, and to write her name, and shall have her residence established in this state for the term of three months next preceding any national election, shall be allowed to vote at such election in the city, town, or plantation where her residence is so established for presidential electors, provided
