PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-Ninth Legislature

1919

statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word "car" in the ninth line of said section the words 'wagon or other conveyance', so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 25. Made to include the selling from wagon or other conveyance. The words "itinerant vendors" for the purposes of this chapter shall be construed to mean and include all persons, both principals and agents, who engage in a temporary or transient business in this state, either in one locality or in traveling from place to place selling goods, wares and merchandise, and who, for the purposes of carrying on such business, hire, lease or occupy any building or structure for the exhibition and sale of such goods, wares and merchandise, or who sells goods, wares and merchandise, at retail from a car, wagon or other conveyance, steamer or vessel. No itinerant vendor shall be relieved or exempted from the provisions and requirements hereof by reason of associating himself temporarily with any local dealer, trader or merchant, or by conducting such temporary or transient business in connection with or as a part of the business of, or in the name of any local dealer, trader or merchant.'

Sec. 3. R. S., c. 41, § 26; relating to exemptions, amended. Section twenty-six of chapter forty-one of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word "hawkers" in the fifth line of said section the words 'or peddlers,' and by adding to said section the following: 'any of whom are bona fide residents of this state or of any other state or country whose laws impose no burden upon citizens of this state engaged in like business within their borders,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 26. Persons exempt must be bona fide residents of state unless reciprocal; peddlers exempt. The provisions of the fifteen preceding sections shall not apply to sales made to dealers by commercial travelers or selling agents in the usual course of business, nor to bona fide sales of goods, wares and merchandise by sample for future delivery, nor to hawkers or peddlers on the streets or peddlers from vehicles, any of whom are bona fide residents of this state or of any other state or country whose laws impose no burden upon citizens of this state engaged in like business within their borders.'

Approved March 29, 1919.

Chapter 130.

An Act to Amend Section Sixteen of Chapter One Hundred and Eighteen of the Revised Statutes, Increasing the Registration Fees of Dealers in Securities and their Agents or Salesmen.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 118, § 16; relating to fees chargeable by bank commissioner, amended. Section sixteen of chapter one hundred and eighteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out, in the first line thereof, the words "for his services" and by inserting after the word "registration" in the fourteenth and seventeenth lines thereof, the words 'or renewal of registration' and by striking out the word "five" in said seventeenth line and inserting in place thereof, the word 'ten', and by striking out, in the nineteenth line thereof, the words "for renewal of registration, five dollars", so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows :

'Sec. 16. Fee of $25 to be charged for renewal of registration of dealer in certificates; fee for registration or renewal of agent or salesman, $10. The bank commissioner shall receive :

For a certificate of authorization of a loan and building association, five dollars, in advance.

For each license authorizing a foreign banking corporation to conduct its business in this state, and each renewal thereof, twenty dollars.

For receiving service of process against such corporation, or against a foreign corporation acting as trustee of a mortgage given by a domestic corporation, two dollars, which shall be paid by the plaintiff at the time of such service, and shall be recovered by him as a part of his taxable costs, if he prevails in the suit.

For granting license to foreign corporations selling securities on the partial payment or instalment plan, and for each renewal thereof, twenty dollars.

For registration, or renewal of registration, of dealers in securities, twenty-five dollars, which shall be returned if application is not granted.

For certified copies of dealer's certificate, fifty cents each.

For registration, or renewal of registration, of salesman or agent of dealer in securities, ten dollars each.'

Approved March 29, 1919.

Chapter 131.

An Act to Amend Section Thirty-seven of Chapter Thirty-three of the Revised Statutes, as Amended by Chapter Two Hundred and Nineteen of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, Relating to the Protection of Moose.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

R. S., c. 33, § 37, 1917, c. 219; relating to protection of moose, amended. Section thirty-seven of chapter thirty-three of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter two hundred and nineteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, is hereby amended by striking out all of said section and substituting therefor the following section :
