Chapter 138.

An Act to Amend Section Fifty-eight of Chapter Four of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Purposes for which Cities and Towns May Raise Money.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 4, § 58; relating to purposes for which towns and cities may raise money, amended. Section fifty-eight of chapter four of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting in the ninth line of said section fifty-eight after the word "sixty-one" the words 'and in the war with Germany and other Central European Powers', so that said section fifty-eight, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 58. May raise money for monuments in memory of soldiers and sailors of European war. Cities and towns may raise money to procure the writing and publication of their histories, to celebrate any centennial or other anniversary of the settlement or incorporation of such city or town, and to publish the proceedings of any such celebration; to defray the expenses of the observance of Memorial Day, Firemen's Memorial Sunday, and of Old Home Week; and a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars in any one town for erecting a suitable monument in memory of the soldiers and sailors who sacrificed their lives in defense of their country in the war of eighteen hundred and sixty-one and in the war with Germany and other Central European Powers and a reasonable sum to secure, grade and care for a lot appropriate for such a monument. They may also raise money to be expended for exterminating or controlling brown-tail and gypsy moths and other insect pests.'

Approved April 1, 1919.

Chapter 139.

An Act to Amend Section Seven of Chapter Sixty-two of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Name of State in Title of a Corporation.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 62, § 7; relating to use of name of state in title of private corporation or association, amended. Section seven of chapter sixty-two of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word "title" in the fifth line of said section, the following words: 'Provided, however, that the members of any existing voluntary association established prior to said day and theretofore using the name of the state in its title, may, subsequent to said day, incorporate under the same title in conformity with said section one', so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:
