Chapter 164.

An Act Amendatory and Additional to Section One Hundred and Twenty-one of Chapter Nineteen of the Revised Statutes, Relating to Public Health.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 19, § 121; relating to the prevention of blindness in infants. Section one hundred and twenty-one of chapter nineteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto at the end of the first sentence thereof the following: 'Every physician, midwife, nurse or other person in charge, shall instill, or cause to be instilled into the eyes of the infant immediately upon its birth one or two drops of a prophylactic solution prescribed by the state department of health', so that the said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 121. Physician, midwife or nurse to instill into eyes of infant prophylactic solution immediately following birth; penalty for violation. If one or both eyes of an infant become reddened or inflamed at any time within four weeks after birth, the midwife, nurse or person having charge of said infant shall report the condition of the eyes at once to some legally qualified practitioner of medicine of the town in which the parents of the infant reside. Every physician, midwife or nurse in charge shall instill or cause to be instilled into the eyes of the infant immediately upon its birth, one or two drops of a prophylactic solution prescribed by the state department of health, unless either parent or the guardian of the infant shall offer conscientious objections thereto. Any failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not to exceed six months.'

Approved April 3, 1919.

Chapter 165.

An Act to Amend Section Thirteen of Chapter Six of the Revised Statutes, Relating to Penalty for Violation of Provisions in Regard to Conduct of Primary Elections.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 6, § 13; relating to the conducting of primary elections, amended. Section thirteen of chapter six of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding at the end of said section the following sentence: 'Every city, town or plantation clerk, ward or election officer, or person voting, who shall wilfully violate any of the provisions of this section shall be punished for each offense by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:
