OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-Ninth Legislature

1919

[supplied from page 3 of volume]

CHAP. 168

resident appears through attorney. Within the time limited for claiming an appeal, the appellant shall file, in the probate office, his bond to the adverse party, or to the judge of probate for the benefit of the adverse party, for such sum and with such sureties, as the judge approves; conditioned to prosecute his appeal with effect, and to pay all intervening costs and damages, and such costs as the supreme court taxes against him, and he shall also file in the probate office the reasons of appeal; and, fourteen days at least before the sitting of the appellate court, he shall serve all the parties who appeared before the judge of probate on the case that have entered or caused to be entered their appearance in the docket of said court, with a copy of such reasons, attested by the register. When a party appears by an attorney residing in this state before the judge of probate in any case, and an appeal is taken, the service of a copy of the reasons of appeal upon such attorney shall be sufficient. In case of controversy between a person under guardianship and his guardian, the supreme court may sustain an appeal on the part of the ward without such bond.'

Approved April 3, 1919.

Chapter 168.

An Act Additional to Chapter Eight of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Burning of Brush.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Slash or debris caused by cutting of wood or timber not to be burned without permit. Any person, firm, corporation or agent who cuts any wood or lumber within the woodlands of this state and desires to dispose of the slash and debris caused by such cutting or clearing by burning shall be first required to obtain a permit therefor in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-three of chapter eight of the revised statutes, and on failure thereof shall be subject to the penalty provided in said section.

Approved April 3, 1919.

Chapter 169.

An Act to Provide for the Support of Dependents of Soldiers, Sailors and Marines.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, suitable provision for the support of dependent members of families of soldiers, sailors and marines who have served in the army and naval forces of the United States or of this state since April first, nineteen hundred and seventeen, is immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, now therefore,
