Chapted 250.

An Act to Amend Chapter Two Hundred and Seventy-two of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, as Amended by Chapter One Hundred and Twenty-three of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen, Entitled "An Act to Require Certain Vehicles to Carry Lights at Night and to Control the Glare of Headlights."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

1917, c. 272; 1919, c. 123; relating to the control of the glare of headlights on motor vehicles, amended. Chapter two hundred and seventy-two of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, as amended by chapter one hundred and twenty-three of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen is hereby further amended by striking out the words "and prescribe penalties for violation thereof" in the fourth and fifth lines of section three; also by adding the following sentence to said section: 'The certificate of the clerk of the public utilities commission shall be received as prima facie evidence in any court of law to prove that said rules and regulations have been prepared, approved and published as herein provided.' The said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 3. Provision authorizing public utilities commission to prescribe penalties repealed. Certificate of clerk of public utilities commission as to promulgation of rules and regulations to be accepted as prima facie evidence to prove publication. The public utilities commission shall prepare rules and regulations from time to time governing the use and operation of headlights on electric cars and lights on motor vehicles used on public highways, and may from time to time alter, rescind or add to any rules and regulations previously made by it. The rules and regulations of the commission and any changes therein shall take effect when approved by the governor and council and published at least once in each daily newspaper in the state. The certificate of the clerk of the public utilities commission shall be received as prima facie evidence in any court of law to prove that said rules and regulations have been prepared, approved and published as herein provided.'

Approved November 7, 1919.
