Chapter 252.

An Act to Amend Section Twelve of Chapter Eighty-three of the Revised Statutes Relating to County Commissioners.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 83, § 12; relating to county commissioners providing workshops, etc., for employment of prisoners, amended. Section twelve of chapter eighty-three of the revised statutes is hereby amended so that as amended said section shall read as follows:

‘Sec. 12. County commissioners authorized to lease or purchase lands and buildings, and may authorize employment of prisoners thereon or therein. They may make such additions in workshops, fences and other suitable accommodations, in, adjoining or appurtenant to the jails in the several counties as may be found necessary for the safe-keeping, governing and employing of offenders committed thereto by authority of the state or the United States; and, for the better employing of such offenders, they may lease or purchase necessary lands or buildings anywhere within their respective counties and may authorize the employment on such lands for the benefit of the county or of dependent families, prisoners committed for crime, as provided in section nineteen hereof. Whenever the county commissioners shall determine that the use of such land and buildings are unnecessary for such use, they may sell and dispose of the same in the manner required by law. The county commissioners may raise by loan of their several counties, or otherwise, a total sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, to make such purchases, alterations and improvements, and may expend so much thereof as is necessary.’

Approved November 7, 1919.
