Chapter 16.

An Act to Authorize the Erection of a Weir in the Waters of Cobscook Bay in the Town of Lubec.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Erection of weir authorized. Frank Hallett, of Lubec, in the county of Washington, is hereby authorized to build and maintain a weir for fishing purposes in front of land owned by him in the tidewaters of Cobscook bay in said Lubec; provided said weir does not interfere with navigation or the right of others.

Sec. 2. Locations and boundaries. The above mentioned weir shall be located as follows and within the following described boundaries: beginning at a point of land known as Armstrong's Point, about one thousand feet southerly of the boundary line of land of Frank Hallett and Edward Wilson, and extending easterly one hundred and seventy-five feet below mean low water mark; thence northerly two hundred and twenty-five feet, thence westerly to the shore of the land of Frank Hallett, with the right to erect such structures on the shore between high and low water mark as would be necessary to the maintenance of such weir.

Approved February 27, 1919.

Chapter 17.

An Act to Amend Chapter Thirty-seven of the Private and Special Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, Entitled "An Act to Provide a Police Commission for the City of Lewiston and to Promote the Efficiency of the Police Department thereof.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. & S. L., 1917, c. 37, § 4; relating to powers and duties of Lewiston police commission, amended. Section four of chapter thirty-seven of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen is hereby amended by striking out the last sentence thereof and substituting therefor the following: 'Said board shall have and exercise all the powers and be charged with all the duties relative to the police force, police department and police property of the city of Lewiston conferred upon the mayor, the municipal officers or the city council of Lewiston at the time of the passage of this act, as fully as if the same had been herein particularly enumerated, including all powers and duties relative to the organization, appointment and control of said police force and the equipment and maintenance of said police department, together with such other powers and duties as are conferred or imposed upon it by the terms of this act. All cost and expenses incurred in connection therewith shall be chargeable to the city of Lewiston and paid by the city treasurer,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:
